ALIVE and ON THE MOVE

Rhonda Layton

Rhonda,
It's really been nice seeing you in school this year. Hope to see ya more next year. You're one pretty girl with a personality to go with it. Stay you are. Take care always.

Have a fun summer. Maybe will see ya at the Beach this summer.

Rhonda.
Best of luck to a sweet girl. Enjoyed having you in class this year.
Best wishes,
Mr. Dozier

Rhonda,
I want to see you get to see you much of ya this year, but I hope
and we'll see ya this summer and next year too!
and cut & BE cool & stay sweet me (432-3033) Love ya
Susan
Jones
"74"

Rhonda,
You are a very cute girl with a lot of problems, maybe the Y will come when can solve them!
Love ya,
Pkyllis
Souder
16"

Rhonda,
You are a very nice girl. Don't forget
my Rogers class.
Good luck in the future. (With the guys)
Maybe we'll see ya
this summer at the beach or somewhere. Call me!
If I don't see ya
during the summer
I'll see ya next year.
Luv ya,
Susan
Seyman

Rhonda,
You are a very cute and sweet girl.
Don't forget to study.
Have a great summer and
Keep your grades up.
Love ya,
Sandra
Stevens

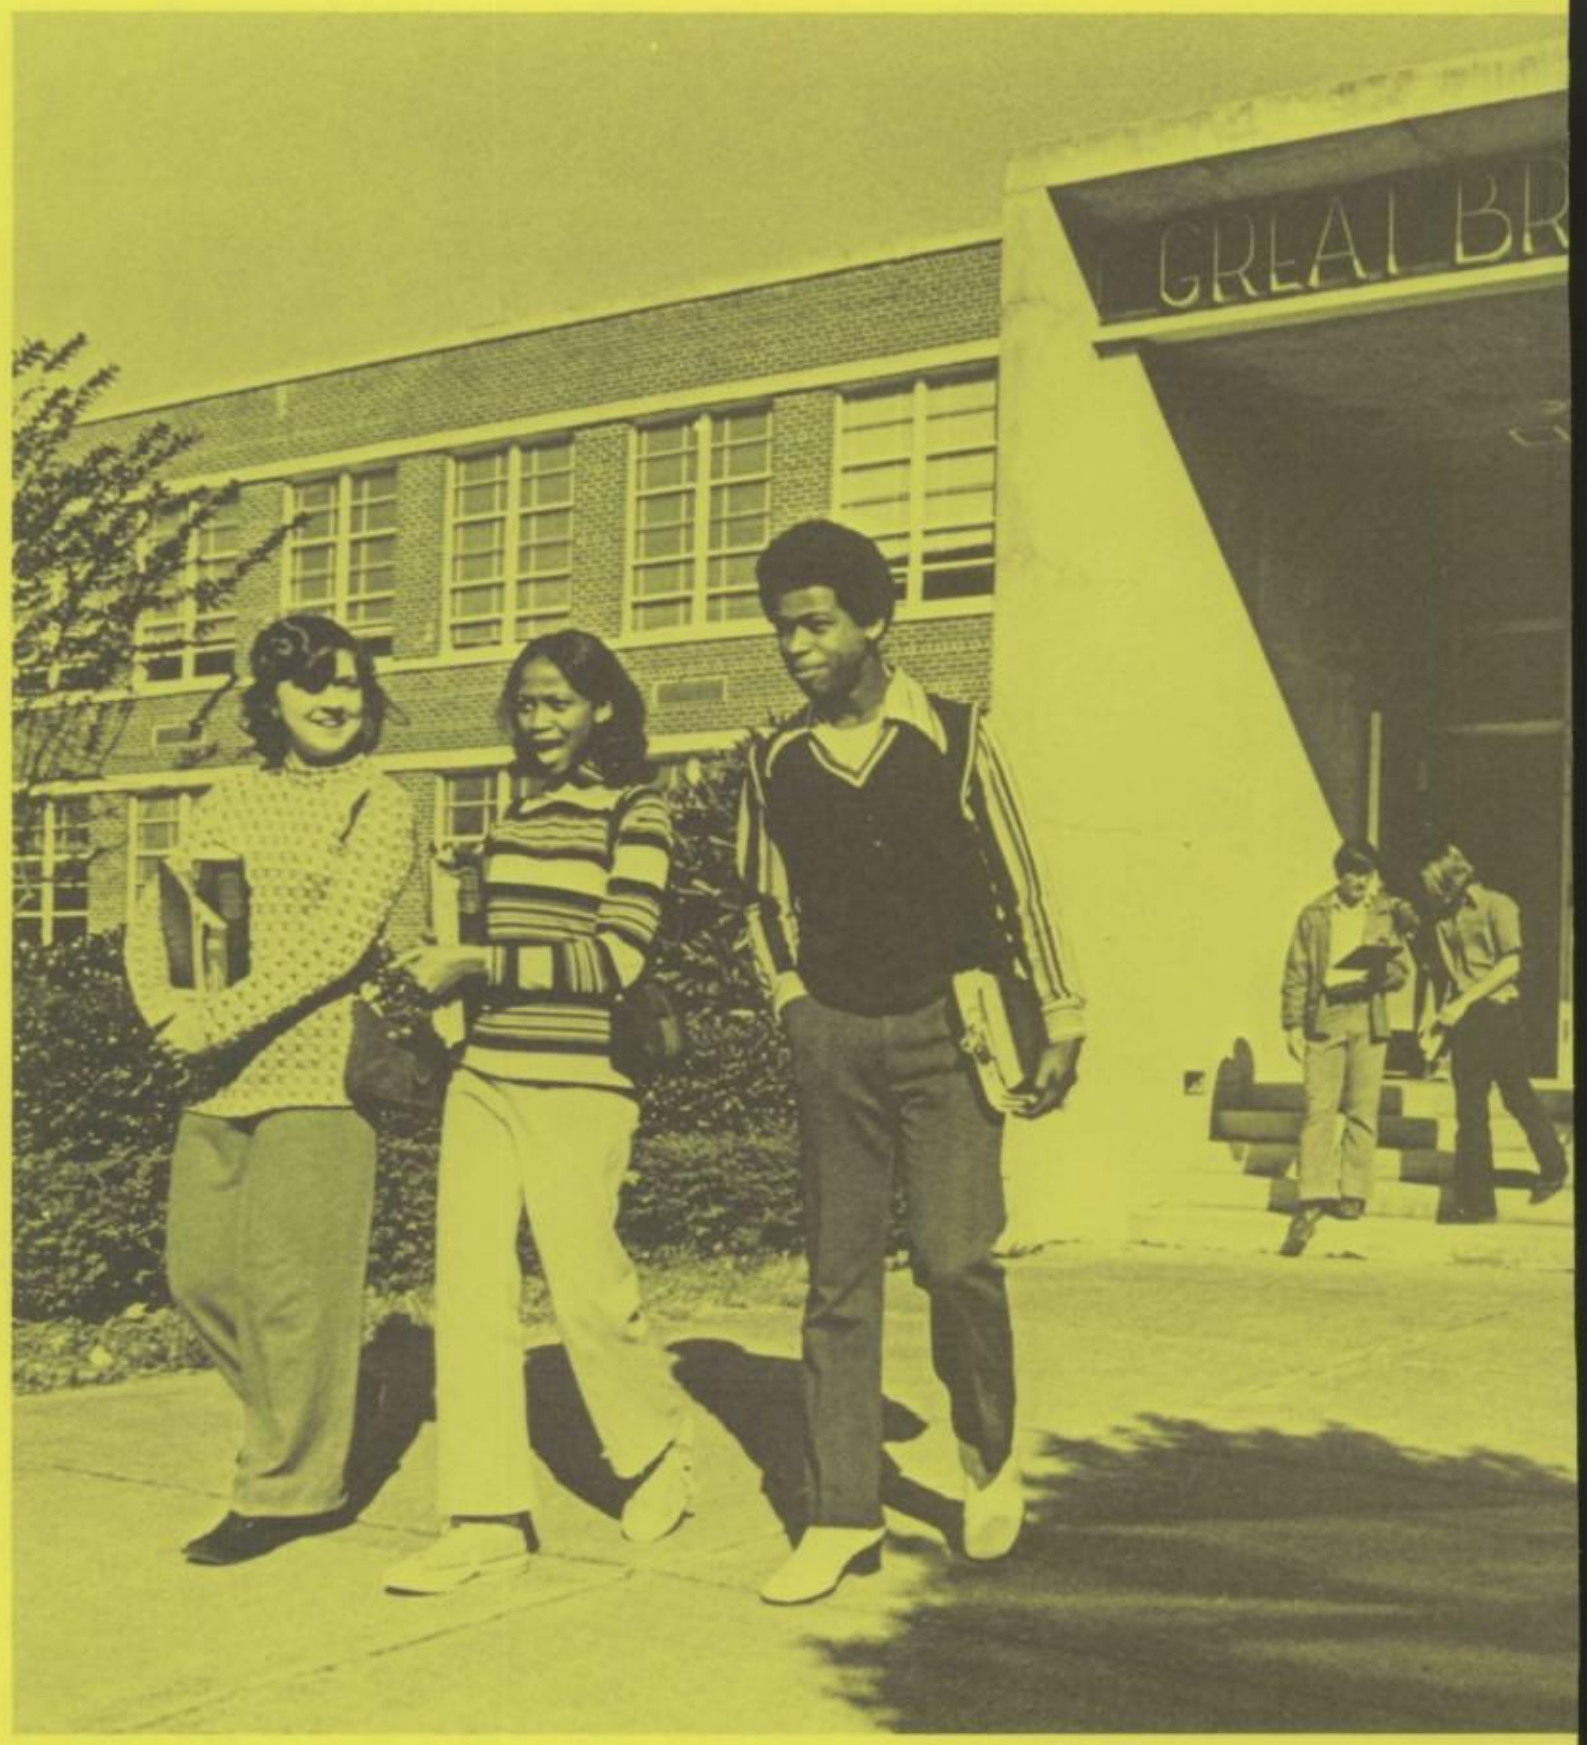
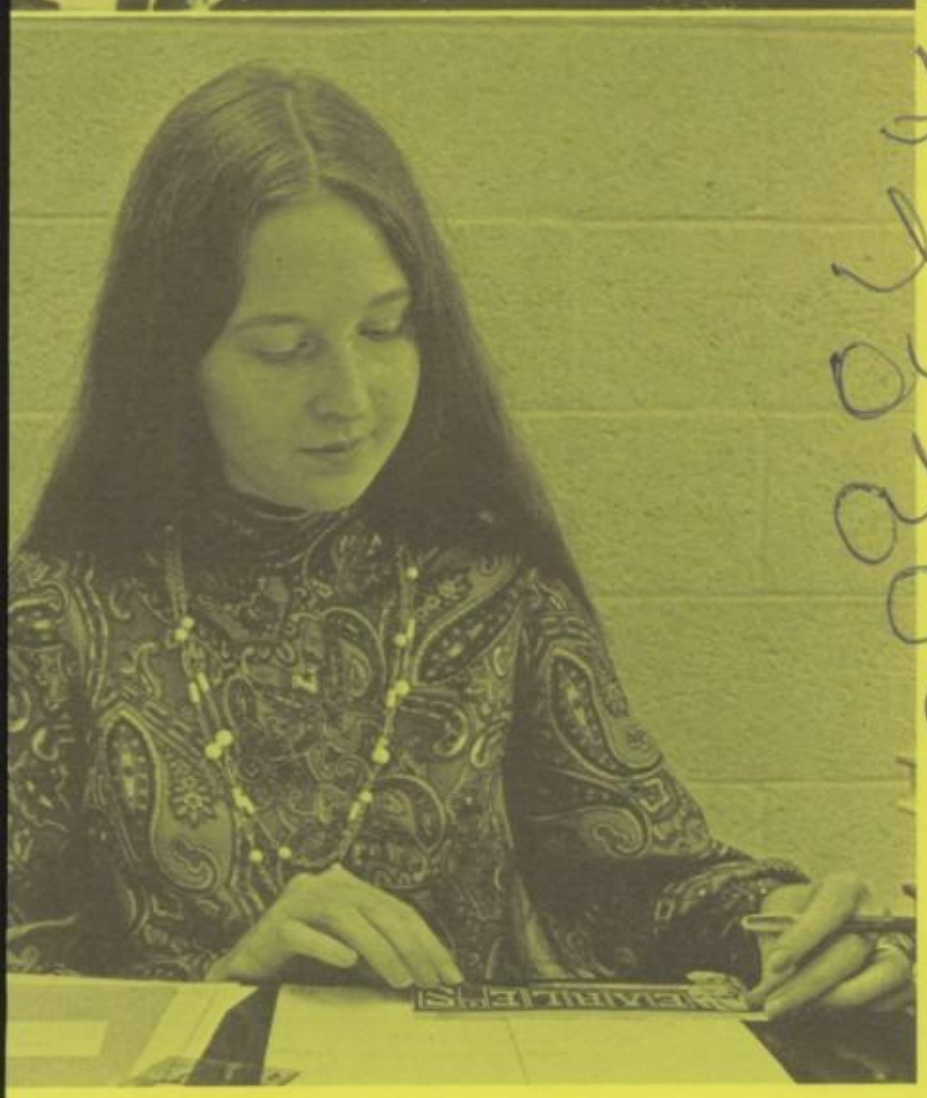
ALIVE and



ON THE MOVE



Great Bridge High School . . .
ALIVE
with individuals and

ON THE MOVE

with involved people working together . . .

Rhonda
It's really be fun this year and I know we've had our days but its all worked out. I'm glad. Look be good and take care of yourself!!
Love Ya!

This is our place . . .
There is no place like it . . .
Make it what we will . . .

But we are ALIVE and
ON THE

MOVE

LEARNING

What it is all about . . .

What other people know and love and

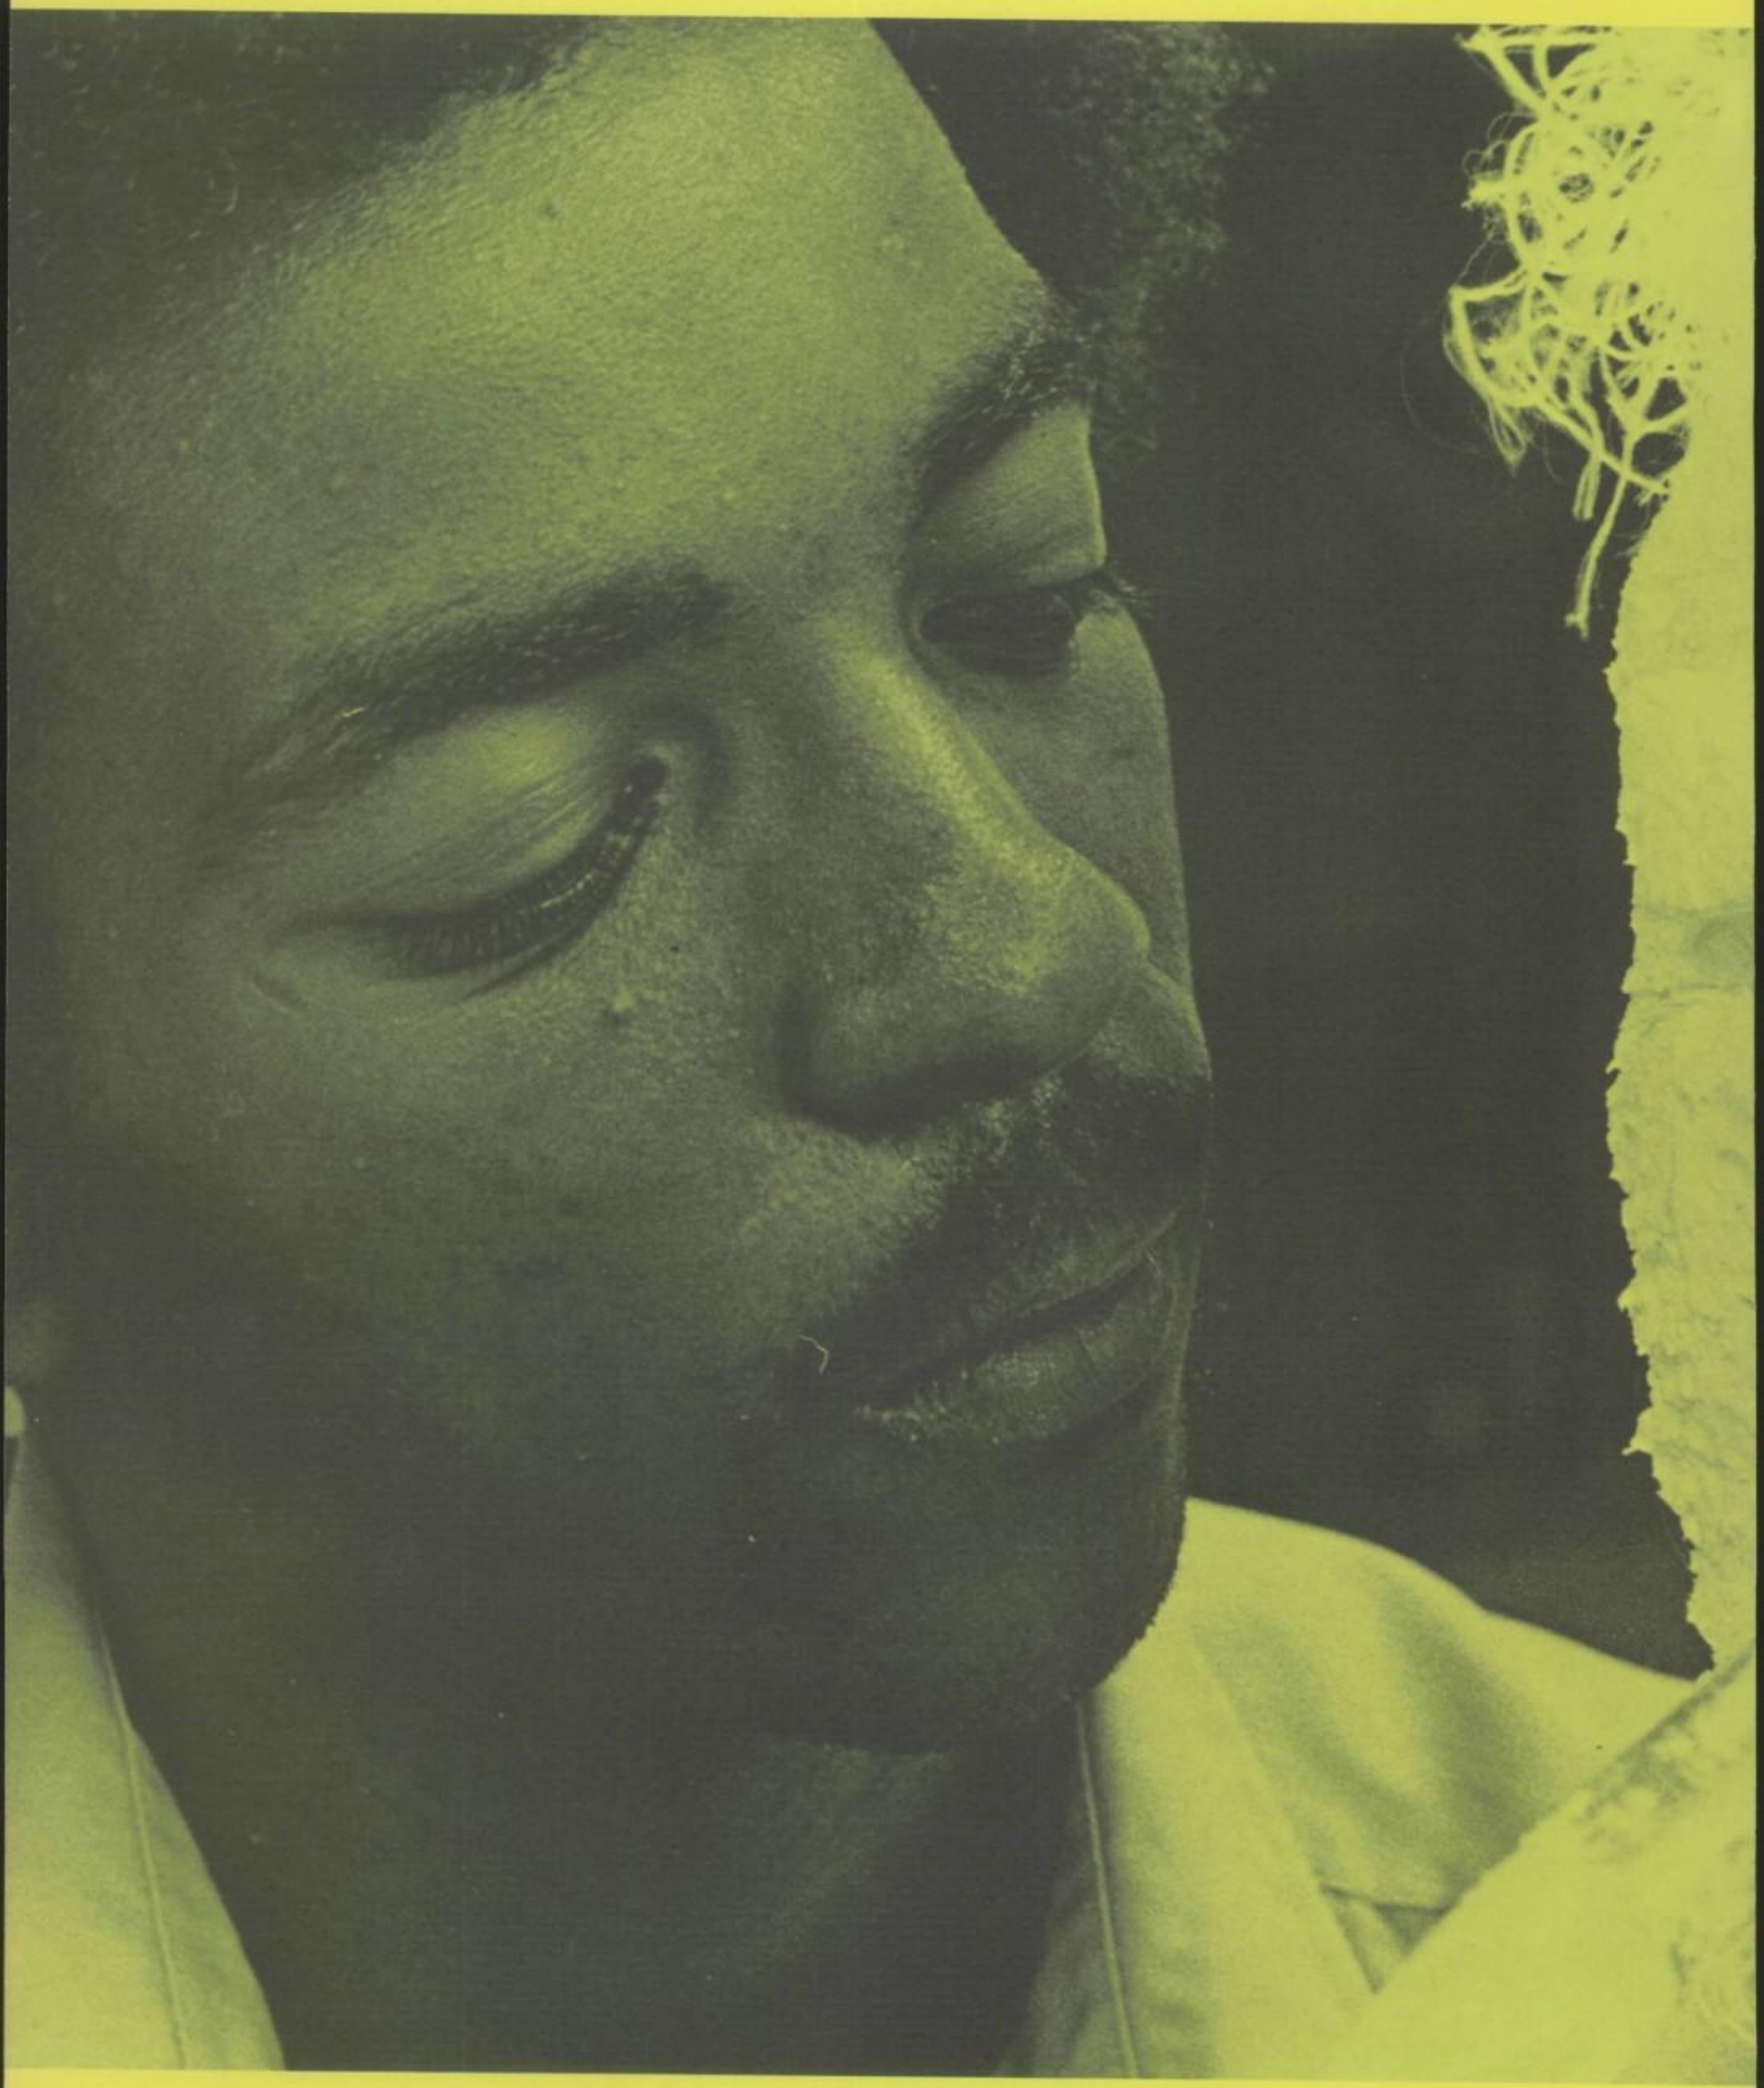
VALUE



And I am still me . . .
Even though I am only one of over 1300 . . .
Creating my own place
in society.

CREATING

I study subjects
I do not always want to study.
I attend assemblies
I do not always want to attend.

I eat lunches
I do not always want to eat.
I come to school
When I do not always want to come.

ALWAYS

Yet I get down to the nitty gritty of . . . . . Meeting new people . . . . . Renewing old friendships . . . . . Studying varied subjects . . . . . Joining favorite clubs . . . . . Supporting Wildcat teams . . . . . .

And still Great Bridge is the place for little things

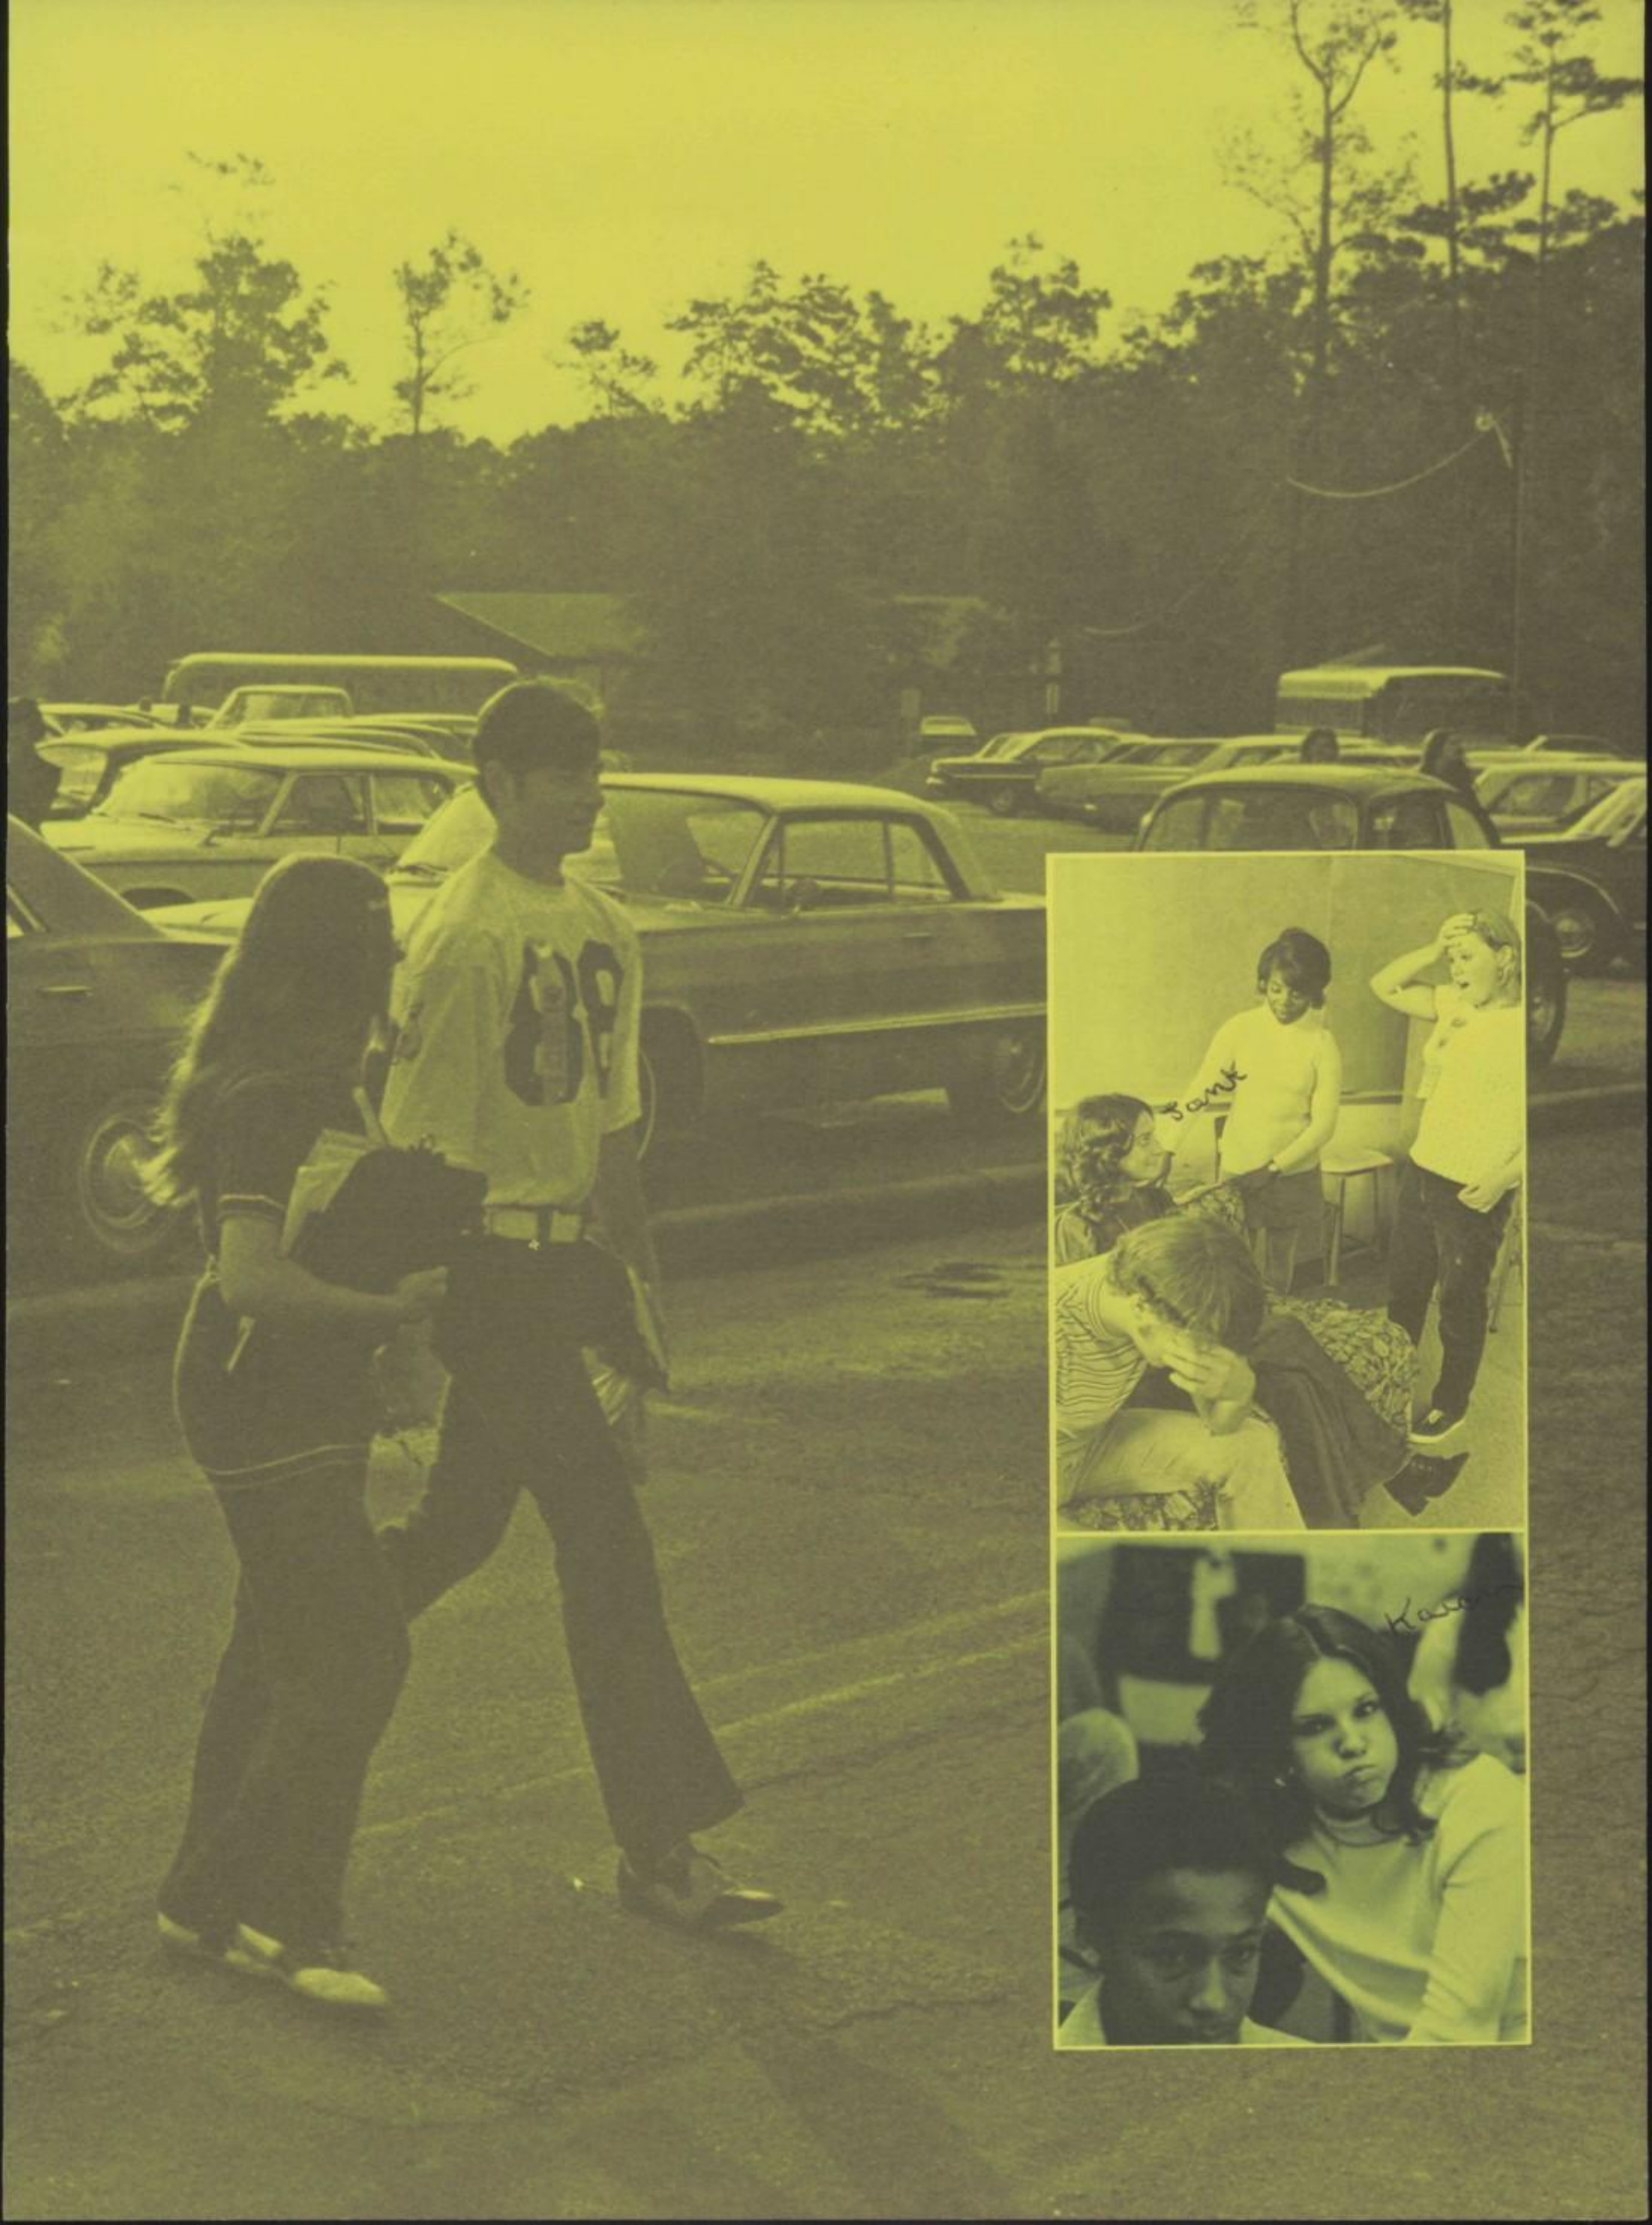
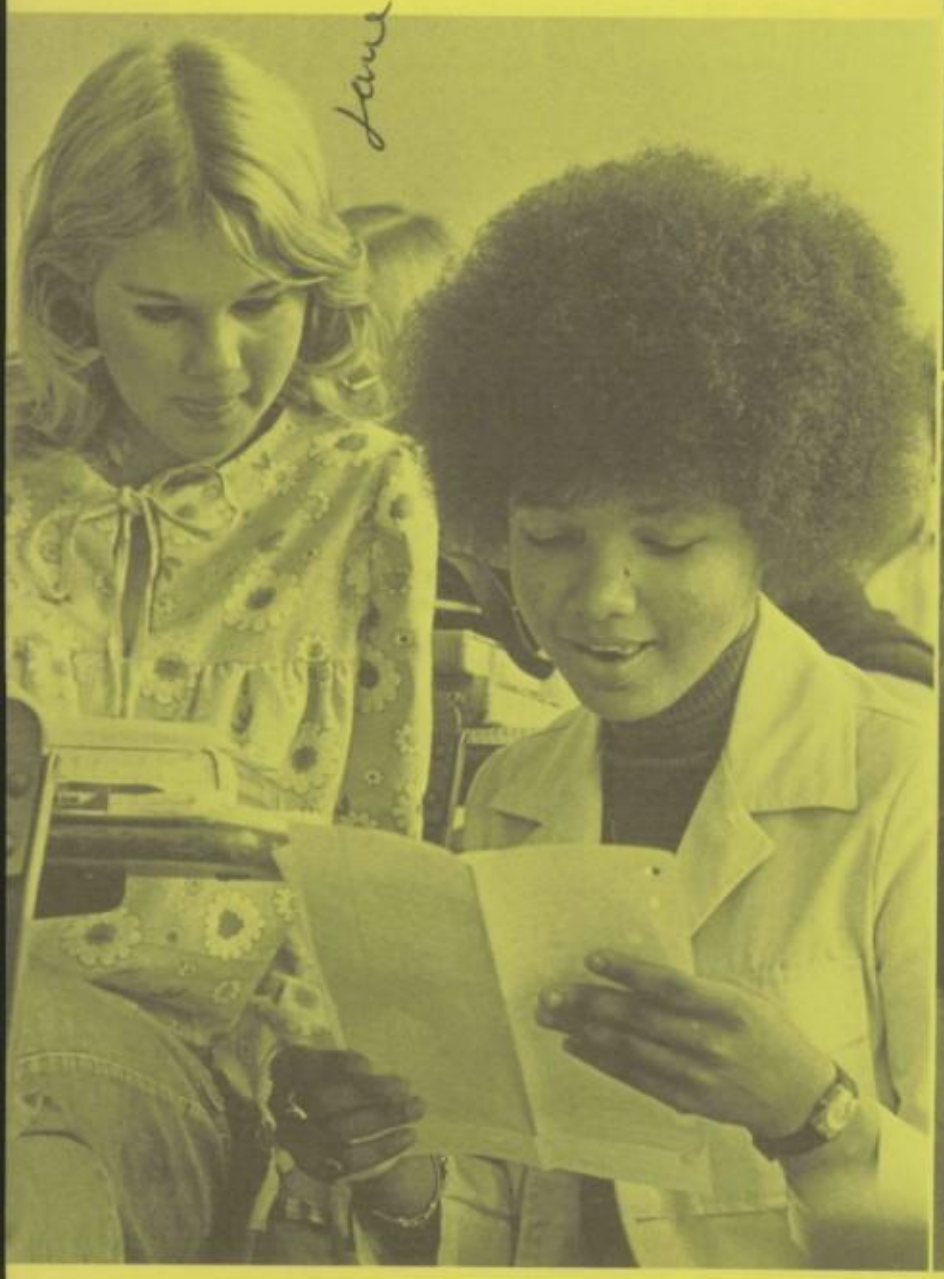
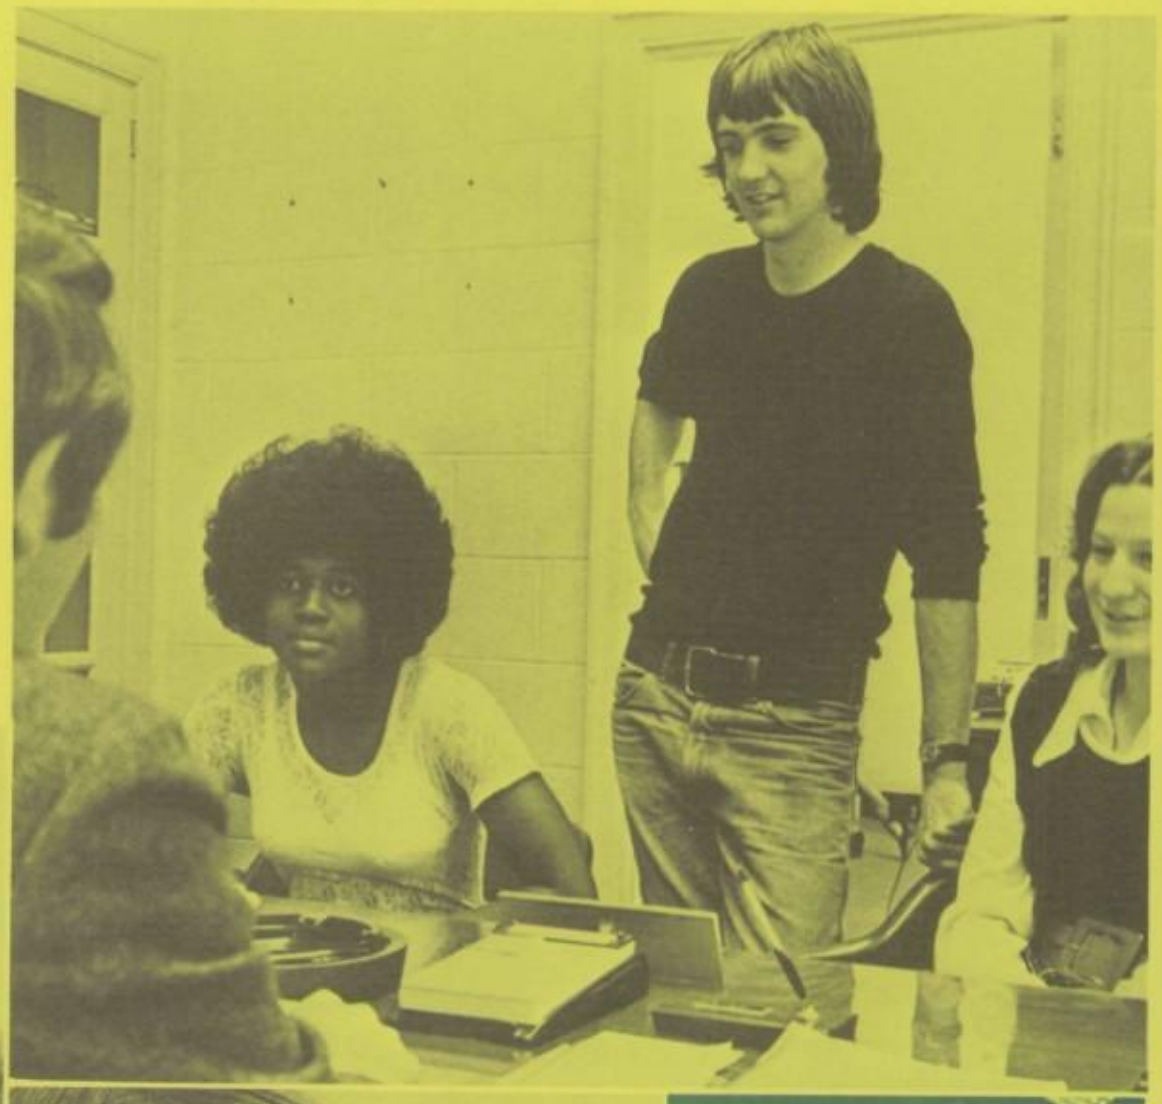
in life . . .
Like rapping or sleeping.
It is a place to do my own thing.



Why must everything
be such a hassle . . .
Like grades
or privileges,
or love?



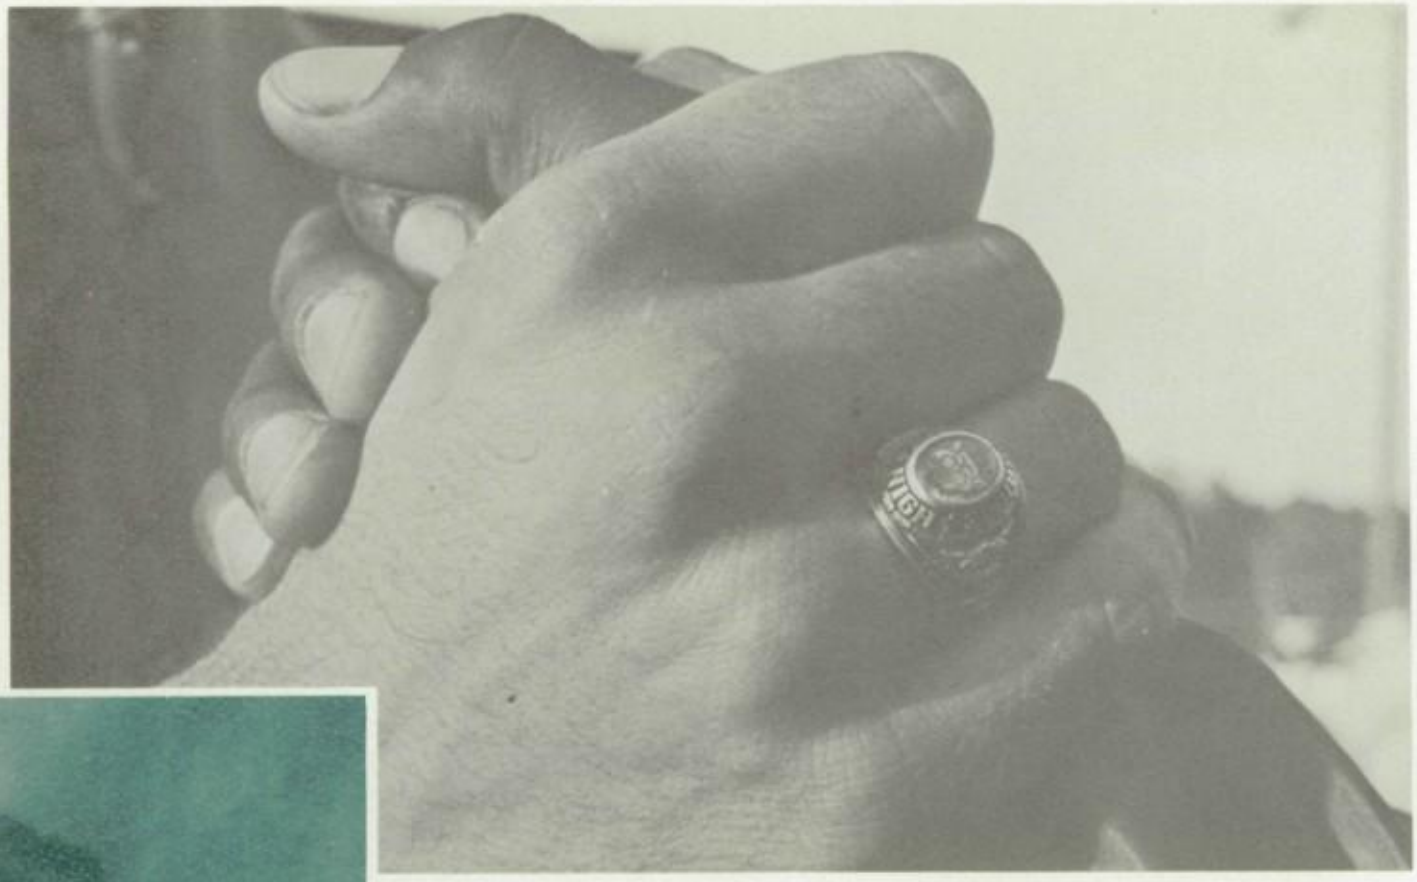


What is it that we learn here?
whatever . . .
If we do not hurry, we may leave without it.

WE ARE ALIVE and
ON THE MOVE.

The STUDENTS

Faces, faces, and more faces — all reflecting the lives of the people at Great Bridge I knew or recognized. Many became memories imprinted on my mind of the things we did, the dreams we shared. From the halls so full of faces, we turned into classrooms to engage our minds in discussion, study — or sleep. But each face in its own unique way helped compose the sophomore, the junior, or the senior class.



ALIVE . . .

with academic study

ON THE MOVE . . .

with class spirit

The INVOLVEMENT

What next? The year just was not long enough — so priorities had to be decided upon. Times were good — times were bad. But each time can be no more, except in the mind. As I strove to reach a goal or searched to fulfill a dream, I studied my lessons, involved myself in school activities, joined our clubs, participated in sports — always supporting Great Bridge with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

School back into swing of things

Students plan curriculum

And where did the summer go? There were no more lazy days of sunning, surfing, or just doing nothing. It was now September — the magic time for school bells to ring.

Sure, students knew some classes were really boring, and a few were a complete wipe out. But in the majority of the classes, there was a rapport between teachers and students that made the classroom become alive and vital. Content and discussion were relevant. From the study of believable characters of William Shakespeare in English to the construction of a birdhouse in shop, students knew the purpose of their being there.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Crowley, the English department — the largest in the school — kept noses to the grindstone finalizing the curriculum guides for the mini-courses to be offered next year. Students were directly involved in the process by letting their wishes be known about the content and scope of the courses to be offered, ranging from the study of the media to the study of the literature of the Far East. Individuality and communication were the key words in all classes — from advanced placement to language skills. Classes were alive with personal interpretations of literary works, whether critical analyses or roleplaying.

And the school library was our library. There were papers, papers, and more papers to be written. In the library of over 12,937 volumes, materials abounded for the researcher. But if work was not the student's bag, magazines and newspapers were around for him to browse through or read. Mrs. Dunkley was always most helpful to anyone needing assistance — from research on a special subject to a book for reporting or just pleasure.

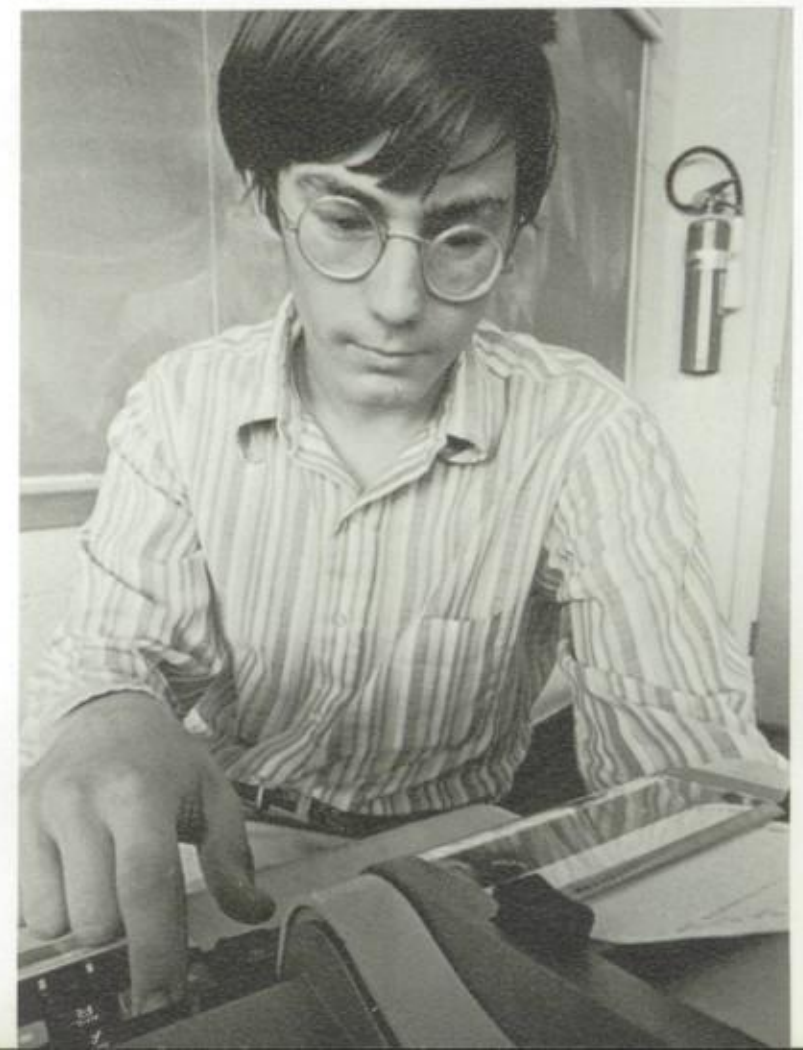
Classes active in politics

Great people throughout the ages became human beings who have shaped man's destiny as the Social Studies department went about the business of making history and government come to life. Mr. Fulcher, having spent the summer in advanced study at the University of Virginia, was department chairman. More guest speakers were heard throughout social studies classes than ever before. Students had caught on to the importance of learning more about societal behavior, and the number who pursued sociology and psychology skyrocketed. That the past is prologue was obvious. Excitement rose as elections neared and candidate choices finally won — or lost. Circles, triangles, graphs, and axes loomed side by side with chewed pencils, mass mistakes, endless erasures, and a network of scratch paper. Working seemingly hopeless formulas, listening to the squeaky chalk, or awaiting endless queries kept students on the ball learning what the place of mathematical know-how is in this technological age. Headed by Miss Griffin, the Mathematics department offered opportunities for pursuit on any level — general math to advanced senior math — that best suited the individual needs.



Team teaching new in art

As water battles raged and Bunsen burners spewed flame, many successful — and sometimes unsuccessful — experiments of all kinds were performed. Mrs. Cahoon, returning from a year's sabbatical to pursue advanced graduate work at the University of Virginia, led the Science department with its varied offerings. Frog dissection, pollution control, and ecological relationship created within students an insatiable yearn for knowledge. The usual notetaking and lectures preceded the nitty gritty of doing your own thing.

Ears were bombarded by a terrific jumble of odd sounds as anyone walked past the foreign language rooms. Field trips, tapes, films, records, word games, and intense study of other cultures spurred student interest in peoples and languages other than their own. Mrs. Cavender chaired the department which offered French, German, and Spanish on levels 1 through 5, depending upon student progress.

In the colorful arena of imagination, each student found his own interest of study in the fine arts, then proceeded on his way into the world of creativity. Audiences depended upon the band for half-time entertainment at games; students anxiously awaited choral concerts. Team teaching in art was a new innovation this year as Mrs. Eason and Mr. Joseph helped students find and develop their own talents in ceramics and painting. Students working with Mr. Stout found the world to be indeed their stage — acting in, directing, and producing plays and skits for class and school enjoyment. Integrating the music, the drama, the art, and the printed word into one, the world of humanities under the direction of Mr. Lee proved to be a rewarding experience, with all Seniors looking forward to their yearly trek to Washington to see for real so much they had studied.

School means half-day for work students

The world is real, and students got down to the practicality of learning those arts necessary to lead the good and full life — home economics, drafting, shop, or special education. Girls learned under Mrs. Ballinger the most practical of all arts for successful marriage, the efficient running of a home — including budgeting, cooking, and sewing. Mr. Alley worked with the learning of drafting, and Mr. Hoffmann helped men in shop. Mrs. Rutledge's special education class had one of the most intriguing rooms in the school with the various equipment and tools for so many creative endeavors — from the typewriter to the saw.

Everyday after fourth bell, about 151 students casually went out of school and drove away. These students were not really privileged simply to leave school early, however, because they were DE and ICT students who were leaving classroom study to begin actual on the job training. Jobs were varied: retailing and distribution appealed to some while others headed toward more technical work in hospitals, offices, beauty shops, or repair shops. Mr. Selby in ICT and Miss Lee and Mr. Miller in DE supervised classes in group discussions, viewing films, and study in new trends and techniques in the work world. Electric typewriters and calculators invaded Great Bridge. With a click, click, click, and a brrinng, zzzipp, students worked at a fast pace to keep up in the courses of the Business department, headed by Mrs. Davenport. Preparing for all facets of secretarial and office work was not the only goal of the business courses: personal typing and notetaking was also offered in order to enable students to prepare themselves to take better notes in all subjects.

Ladies join ROTC program

Women in uniform! ROTC instructors, Major Owens and Sgt. Ricks, found themselves faced with the reality that ladies, too, can drill and march and learn those technicalities that people learn when they study aerospace education. There was one thing for sure — a different style of uniform had to be ordered. Both men and women surely looked snappy on the drill field.
"Now, here we use the body as well as the mind," advised the new Physical Education department head, Mr. O'Brien. Students constantly gained a competitive and sportsmanship education. The men somehow weathered the hated showers better than the ladies with their undone hairdos and runny make-up. Both suffered the curse of being caught in the shower when the bell rang. Driver education was a required part of sophomore courses, with Mr. Wettering and Mr. Gates instructing behind the wheel. This year the school got its very own paved driving range, where drivers got their first taste of back seat driving. There were days it was a true battle.
But the good days outweighed the bad, and the lively classes overshadowed the drab.
And through it all, Wildcats learned "And this, too, shall pass."

SCA gives parties to honor the smarts

The Student Cooperative Association proved conclusively that Great Bridge High was indeed ALIVE and ON THE MOVE. At the beginning of the year, the attention focused mainly on the organization of Homecoming - the biggest and best ever. However, while working on Homecoming, they did not neglect other important duties such as the driver registration and the sending of flowers to students in the hospital or to those with a death in the immediate family. Remaining within the council's wall of traditions, Honor Roll parties were given each six weeks, a Christmas dance was held, and the Variety Show was presented. Assemblies organized by the SCA included a before-the-mock-election program during which students explained the presidential candidates' views on important issues and their goals, an Honor Assembly featuring "Alice Cooper," and an assembly concerning Cerebral Palsy and its fund-raising twenty-mile Walk-A-Thon in which thirty people from Great Bridge participated.

Students contribute $1301.00 for needy

On the city-wide level, the SCA hosted the City-Wide SCA meeting held on February 15th and participated in the City-Wide Exchange Day in which two Great Bridge students were exchanged with two other students from each school in Chesapeake. Making itself known at School Board meetings, the SCA fought a hard - but losing - battle for the weighted grade system. Total involvement was the goal. And money was needed, so a donkey basketball game was held to raise funds. Showing the spirit of sharing, the SCA gave to the United Fund and headed the Christmas Drive for the needy in which $1301.00 was collected, placing Great Bridge first in city-wide competition. The council also paid to send Pam Cutler, president, to the Presidential Classroom for Young Americans.

Through all the hassles and disappointments, struggles and gains, the SCA showed that through cooperation much can be achieved - and was.

'An Evening with Uncle Ron'

On the night of November 30th, the student body as well as anyone else interested in music, comedy, or just a good time was invited to spend "An Evening with Uncle Ron." With Mr. Ron Lee and Ken Powers leading the host of performers from singing to dancing to impersonating, the presentation revealed to everyone the talent not likely to be aware of in passing the stars in the crowded corridors or sitting beside them in class.

Varied talent provides fun

Outstanding features such as the Panthers, the songs of Debbie Ragsdale and Nathaline Alexander, the impersonations of John Sparks, the DNA, and the dances of the Modern Club group proved to be entertaining all the way. Each participant received the statisfaction of doing a great job, while in turn those who viewed it all found themselves actually participating in the fun.

New staff invades romper room

Romper Room came alive on September 5th with the excitement of The 1973 Causeway staff beginning their preparations for the yearbook that would top all yearbooks. The new family emerged with different ideas for the annual — encompassing new concepts along with the suggestions from the judges. The honor of having received First Place from Columbia Press Association, the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Virginia High School League loomed as a real challenge that just had to be topped. During the summer Cindy Currin and Mama Lou attended a workshop held at Longwood College, bringing home great changes that had to be made.

Two goals — $4000. in advertising and 800 in sales — necessitated working long, hard, grueling hours until these goals became realities — or nearly so.

The awaited day finally came: Wildcats scampered to Room 101 for the greatest book yet.

Weekly paper keeps staff hustling

Covering all the highlights of interest to the Wildcats, the Bridge staff kept on the go collecting the good — and sometimes bad — newsy bits. Robert Ashburn, Diana Brown, Sharon Harlow, Stanley Hamilton, Marion Pedersen, with their ever so jolly advisor, Mr. Sandy Jarrell, did a great job in keeping the line of communication open between the students and faculty. In order that the student body be kept well informed at all times, the Bridge staff published an issue each week.

The school literary magazine, The Bridgetown Scroll, was also edited by the newspaper staff. Everyone who wished to do so could have his work published in the magazine, the result being a real show of student creativity. However, because of limited funds and lack of student interest, The Bridgetown Scroll had only two issues this year. Since the same few students were responsible for both the magazine and newspaper, the staff elected not to have an editor or to delegate responsibility to any one person.

The staff slaved together as a unit in producing lively, snappy work of interest.

Cheerleaders decorate locker room before games

Before football players began their blocking, tackling, and kicking, the cheerleaders began their summer practice in June. Anticipating a big season ahead, cheers were learned, stumbled through, then perfected. Along with some other squads in the area, the cheerleaders attended Varsity Review in August. The cheerleaders visited the Wildcat team in the middle of their exhausting and sweltering week at football camp. Everyone enjoyed a sumptuous dinner followed by a rousing pep rally. With the beginning of school came the start of football season and cheering for a 9-1 team. After school practicing, sign-making, selling spirit ribbons and links for the spirit chain, making name tags for the players, and decorating the Wildcat locker room before the big games proved to be hard work that was more than worthwhile.

Wildcats wrap up District championship

The band playing; the cheerleaders cheering — everything to remind one of football. The Wildcat football team greeted the fall season with a resounding 35-12 victory over the Oscar Smith Tigers. Upset minded Princess Anne doused the Wildcat hopes for an undefeated season by etching out a 16-15 victory. Team spirit dampered; the mighty Wildcats had a surprisingly tough time in sinking the Cradock Admirals 12-7. Earl Spellman scored the winning touchdown on a 10 yard run.

Then came Indian River! The Braves — the top ranked team in the Southeastern District — fell to the recharged Wildcats by a convincing 20-0. Curt Hall set the final score with his 45 yard run. Great Bridge's stiff defense made the first two scores possible, holding the previsouly undefeated Braves to 57 yards total offense.

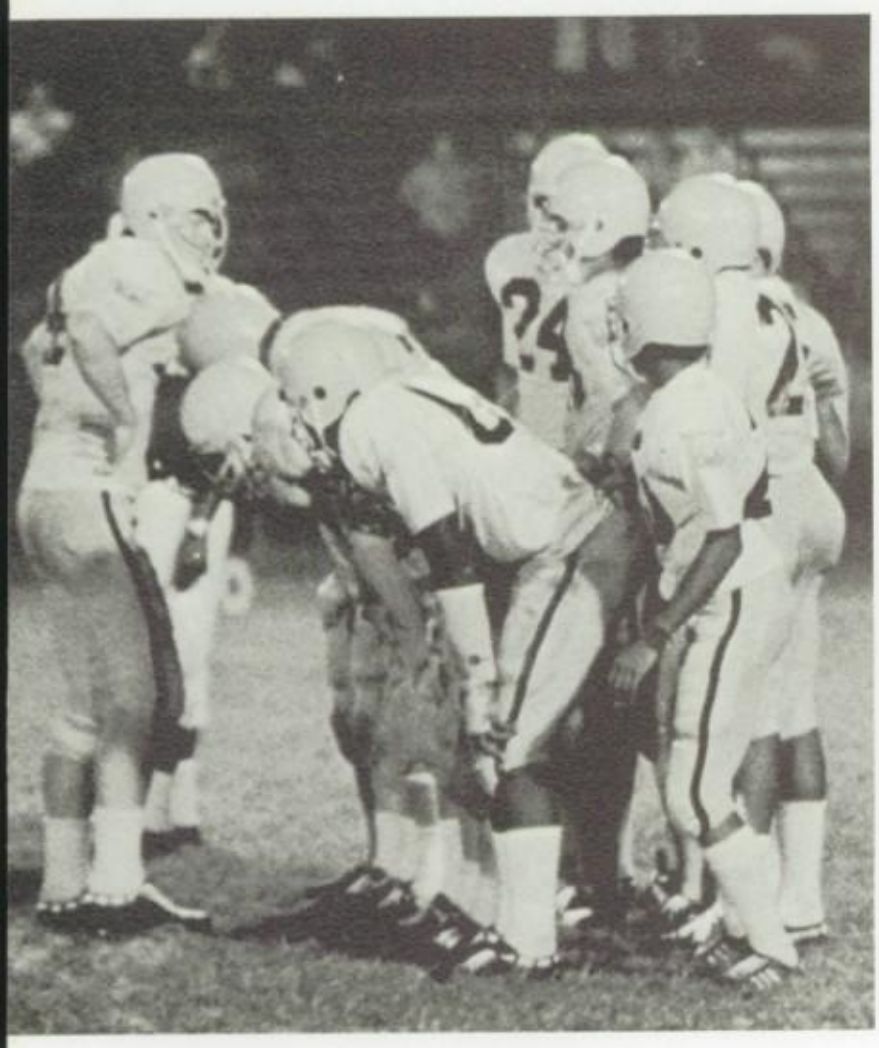
Curt Hall makes All Eastern Regional

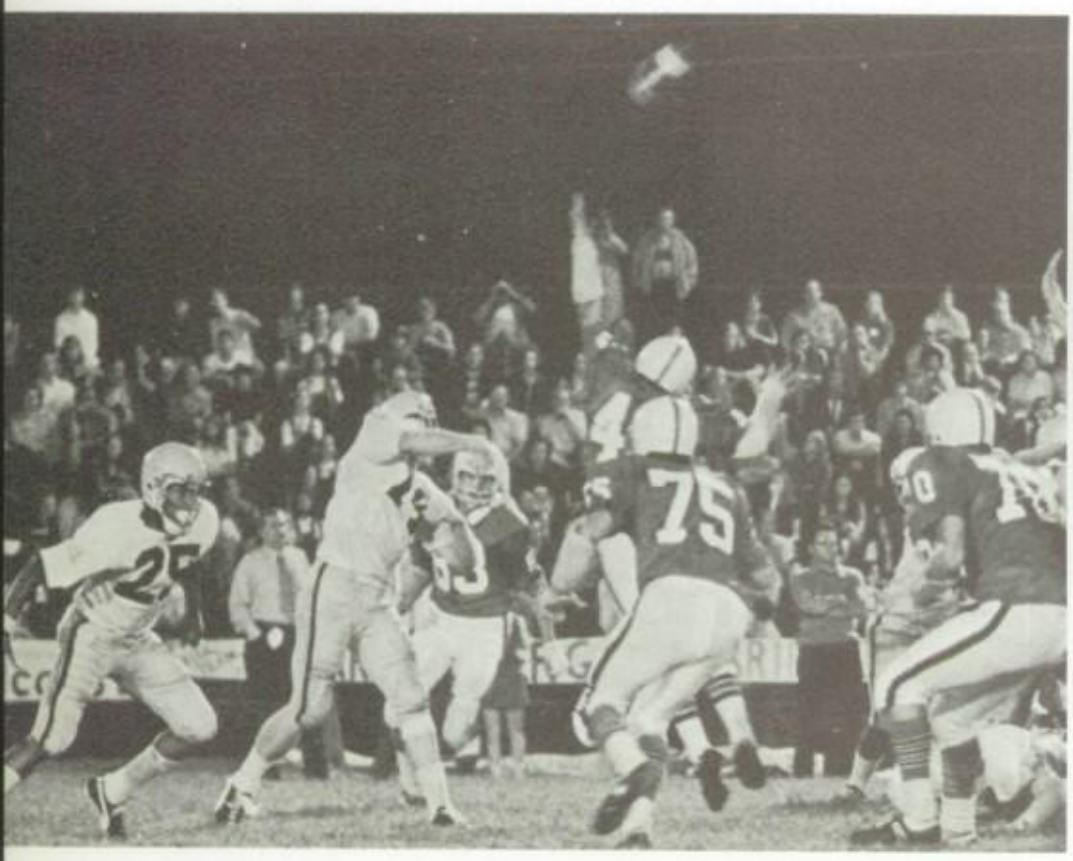
A formidable opponent for the Cats the Churchland Truckers proved to be. On a 71 yard dash by Earl Spellman and again with the tough defense, the Wildcats did speed by the Truckers 19-12. Key running by Stanley Lancaster, who scored two touchdowns, led the team to victory.

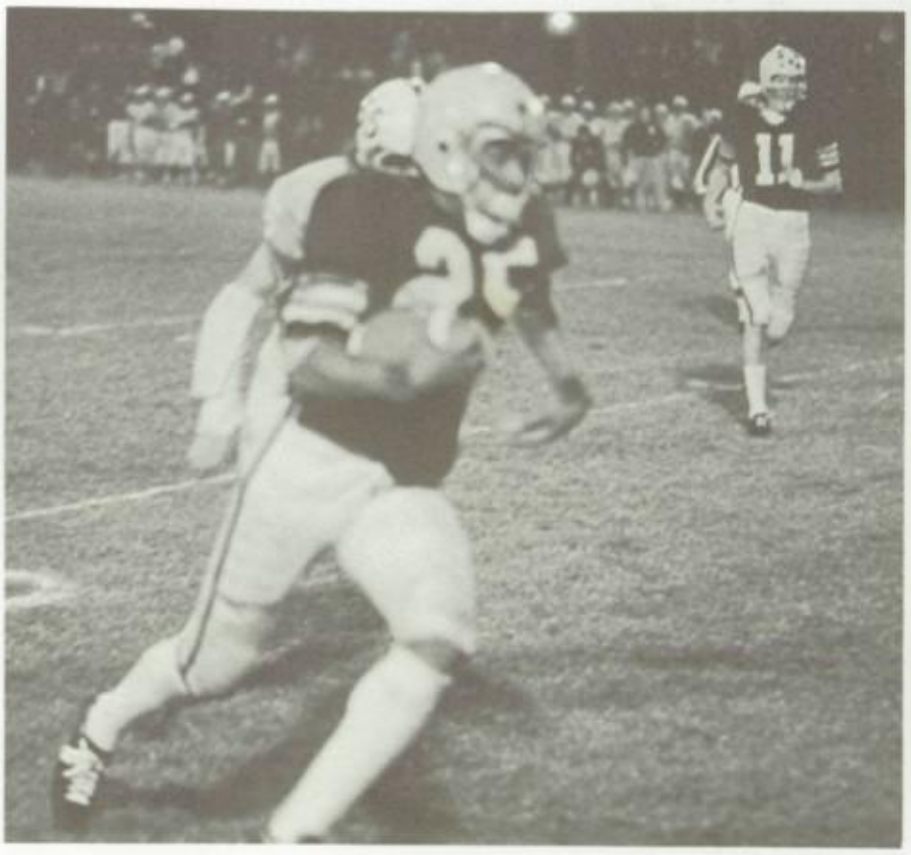
Manor, the team's toughest foe, truly gave the Wildcats a hard time. But on the kicking of Bill Wilkerson, who was outstanding all year, the Cats squeaked through with a 10-8.

Homecoming — the floats and all the pageantry — was the night of nights. Smashing the Wilson Presidents 34-0, Great Bridge avenged last year's game.

And then Deep Creek succumbed to the Wildcats' mighty offense. Led by Dickie Carey, Great Bridge stung the Deep Creek Hornets 27-6. Carey amassed 172 yards rushing in 30 carries.







Bradshaw, Curl lead blockers

Up-ending the Kellam Knights 32-13, the Wildcats wrapped up the Southeastern District title. Once again the attack was led by the masterful quarterbacking of Stanley Lancaster and the hard-nosed running of Curt Hall. The Wildcats ground out 321 yards rushing. Outstanding blocking by Troy Anchors and Robert Bradshaw helped the offense move. In the last game of the season, Great Bridge breezed by Western Branch 34-6. Dickie Carey and Donnie Luster were the rushing leaders.

Lower left: Robert Bradshaw kicks off again.
Lower right: "Catch me if you can," yells Dickey Carey.
Far lower right: And so those Wildcats have another touchdown!

Dickie Carey placed on All Tidewater squad

Having clinched the Southeastern District title with a 9-1 record, Great Bridge Wildcats were again on top. Dickie Carey was selected for the All Tidewater first team as a running back, and Curt Hall made the All Eastern Regional Team as a linebacker. With the supporting efforts of Tony Clark, Thomas Curl, Mike Hudson, Ricky Laumann, John Mamoudis, Mike Old, David Sawyer, and William Sutton, a jubilant team ended the season. At a banquet held in the cafeteria on November 29th, all men received a letter. To show their appreciation for the spirited cheering and hard work throughout the season, the team presented red roses to Marsha Blevins and Marci Larivee — co-captains of the varsity cheering group — Billie Kay Jones, Debbie Moore, Margaret Moore, Vicki Sykes, and Carolyn Wilson. The tears of the cheerleaders did in no way dampen the celebration of the DISTRICT CHAMPIONS.

Baby Wildcats claw way to 5-2 season

Winning five and losing only two placed the junior varsity football squad third in the district. The defense came up with an all time first by holding the opponents to a 10.1 point average per game, while the offense generated 18.2 points each game. The large following of spirited fans, being led in cheers by the junior varsity cheerleaders, indeed spurred the baby Wildcats on.

With returnees Kent Eley, Terry Spruill, Mike Strickland, and David Weatherly, the JV's next year will be the team to watch. To go all the way for an undefeated season is the aim. Moving up to the mighty varsity team to give a show of power will be Paul Andrews, Eddie Embry, Mike Hemphill, Donald Lane, Mark Phillips, and Emanuel Upton.

Wildcats burn Presidents in effigy

Homecoming Week proved to be one of the most active weeks at Great Bridge High this year. On Monday, the cheerleaders started everything rolling by promoting a spirit contest which involved the individual classes. Each class had its own spirit chain composed of spirit links sold by the cheerleaders. By Friday it was evident that the Seniors had won.

On Thursday night, a bonfire pep rally was held following the JV game. As flames lept high and the Wilson President's effigy burst into flames, the spirit of Great Bridge was rekindled.

Excitement soared even higher on Friday, October 27th, as pre-game activities began. Preceding the game with arch-rival Wilson, the SCA honored the Classes of 23, 33, 43, 53, and 63 with an alumni dinner at the school. After watching the Wildcat victory, the alumni then went to the Great Bridge Twin Theatre for a reception — with Cold Duck, no less.

Billie Kay Jones crowned Homecoming queen

When an Army helicopter carrying the game ball approached the stadium, the spirit of the crowd reached an all time high. After landing on the 50-yard line, the Wildcat mascot — Command Sgt.-Major El Pedio Manoso, a former Wildcat himself — jumped out and presented the ball to the present principal, Mr. Harry Blevins, and the principal of 20 years ago, Mr. W.J. Johnson. During halftime, clubs in accordance with the theme, "Turn Back the Hands of Time," contended for the winning float. For the second year in a row, Dorcas Tri-Hi-Y won first prize with their float. Climaxing the halftime activities, Mr. Blevins crowned Senior Billie Kay Jones the Homecoming Queen. Following the rollicking 34-0 victory over the Presidents, students attended the Homecoming dance in the cafeteria decorated by the varsity cheerleaders. Happy with the result of the game, students danced to the music of Slap Water Jack until midnight. The Fall Festival on Saturday was rained out, but Nostalgia Night was still on. The dance sponsored by the SCA featured hits of the 50's and 60's. It was a great ending for a most memorable Homecoming Week: students and alumni alike had truly turned back the hands of time.

Band wins first place in Apple Blossom festival

Excitement abounded as the Great Bridge concert and marching band opened another season. With Mr. Martin again directing the band and majorettes, all members knew that they had to — and did — live up to the enviable reputation they held. Winning first place in the concert division at the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester and three consecutive superior ratings in district competition helped establish this esteem. All enjoyed a splendid performance at halftime during the football season as the marching band and majorettes came up with new routines and exciting music.

Band council serves in executive capacity

Consisting of 86 members, the Wildcat concert and marching band stayed busy. Every six weeks each student had to check off his music at least once. And only band people really knew what a task checking off music could be. In addition, there were section rehearsals every other week after school, formations learned, and concerts given. Two big concerts took place — one at Christmas and one in the spring.

The band council served in an executive capacity. It was the responsibility of these members to iron out problems concerning not only band matters within the school but also to talk with Mr. Martin about parades, trips, or any other issues relating to band activity. Serving as president of the council, Cleve Johnson was ably assisted by Holly Hogge, Cindy Parks, Ralph Ricardo, Elizabeth Weeks, and Matt Whealton.

Twenty-three placed in All-Regional band

Excitement abounded on Saturday, December 9th, as the brasses went to Mapp Junior High School in Portsmouth and the woodwinds to Deep Creek High School for All Regional try-outs. Those selected won their accolades simply by being selected: those who failed accepted defeat with dignity. Great Bridge placed twenty-three students in the All Regional band — a feat that the entire student body shared with pride.

The students selected for the All Regional band were David Adkins, Debbie Alderman, Steve Bradley, Diana Brown, Bret Cahill, Sharrell Duke, Pat Flynn, Holly Hogge, Cleve Johnson, Andy Lawson, Becky Lyle, Jill Martin, David Motley, Morse Olin, Dorothy Parker, Cindy Parks, Albert Reel, Roy Sansom, John Shook, Alan Vaughan, Elizabeth Weeks, Matt Whealton, and David Williams.

New groups get organized

Getting organized consumed the time of Drill Team and the Modern Dance Club. For the first time Great Bridge had both groups. The Drill Team participated during half time at all of the home football games. For the most part the Modern Dance group was for the enjoyment of the members themselves, but the club did ride in the Homecoming parade to let others know they were there, as well as dance in the Variety Show.

Ed Taychert wins trophy

The Chess Club participated in a tournament held at Kempsville High School on December 9th and 16th. Eddie Taychert, president of the club, walked away with the big one - the trophy. Ed won 5.5 matches out of a possible 8. Sponsoring a chess tournament at Great Bridge was another highlight of the action of the club.

Junior Civitans help children at day camp

Make Things Better — that is just what the Junior Civitans did. With a new sponsor, Coach Rhodes, the club remained a true service one all the way. Members washed Chesapeake City police cars as a community project. In addition, the club worked side by side with the Senior Civitans in their annual fruitcake and peanut sales, as well as raised money for the Retarded Children's Fund. In order to earn money for club activities, each member was responsible to box and sell popcorn at the home football games.

One of the most rewarding activities of the cool coed club was helping with the children at the Camp Civitan day camp.

Becky Sever selected Key Club sweetheart

Total involvement for service — that aim sparked the Key Club forward. Under the leadership of Al Root, president, the projects accomplished were the collecting of paper for recycling, clearing behind Old Shopping Center, painting numbers on the reserved seat section in the stadium, and ushering for performances in the auditorium as well as for football and basketball games and wrestling matches. One of the most rewarding activities was the participation in the Walk-a-thon for Cerebral Palsy.

As the club traditionally does, a Sweetheart was selected — Becky Sever. Becky proudly rode the club float in the Homecoming parade.

In order to earn money, the club sold wastebaskets and sponsored a "Guess the Key" contest. David Palmer was the winner of the contest with a tape recorder as a prize.

Gym aglow with signs during games

When wrestling and basketball seasons rolled around, the cheerleaders stayed busy spurring the crowds in their support of the Wildcats. And the support of the ladies was ever evident in the gym which was literally wallpapered with signs and posters. The cheerleaders who were responsible for the colorful walls were Marsha Blevins and Marci Larivee, co-captains; Jayme Ewell; Cheryl Frazier; Sincerial Gregory; Cindy Harris; Ruth Ann Laumann; Peanut Roughton; Beverly Southerland; and DeeDee Trask. Many long hours after school went into the painting and drawing of the works. Two basketball squads and three wrestling squads alternated nights to cheer for both of the winter sports.

Cagers end with a 6 - 3 season of teamwork

Responding to the cheers of an enthusiastic group of fans, the Cat cagers posted a record of 6-3 in the District and a 11-11 overall. Leading the Wildcats as captain was Tony Creekmore. For his outstanding season, Creekmore took a spot on the first team in both All-Southeastern District and All-District. Throughout the season he was the leading scorer with a 14.5 points average. In addition, Creekmore captured the leading rebounder place with his 235.

Mike Old had the most assists with his 41. Shooting 69 per cent from the line, Earl Spellman had the best free throw percentage. Seniors on the team were Tony Creekmore, Vernon Gomez, Cliff Macklin, John Mamoudis, Mike Old, and Larry Roberts. Mamoudis and Roberts remained outstanding in rebounds and defense. Gomez proved to be one of the greatest spirit and morale builders ever. Team work all the way carried the Cats into the semi-finals.

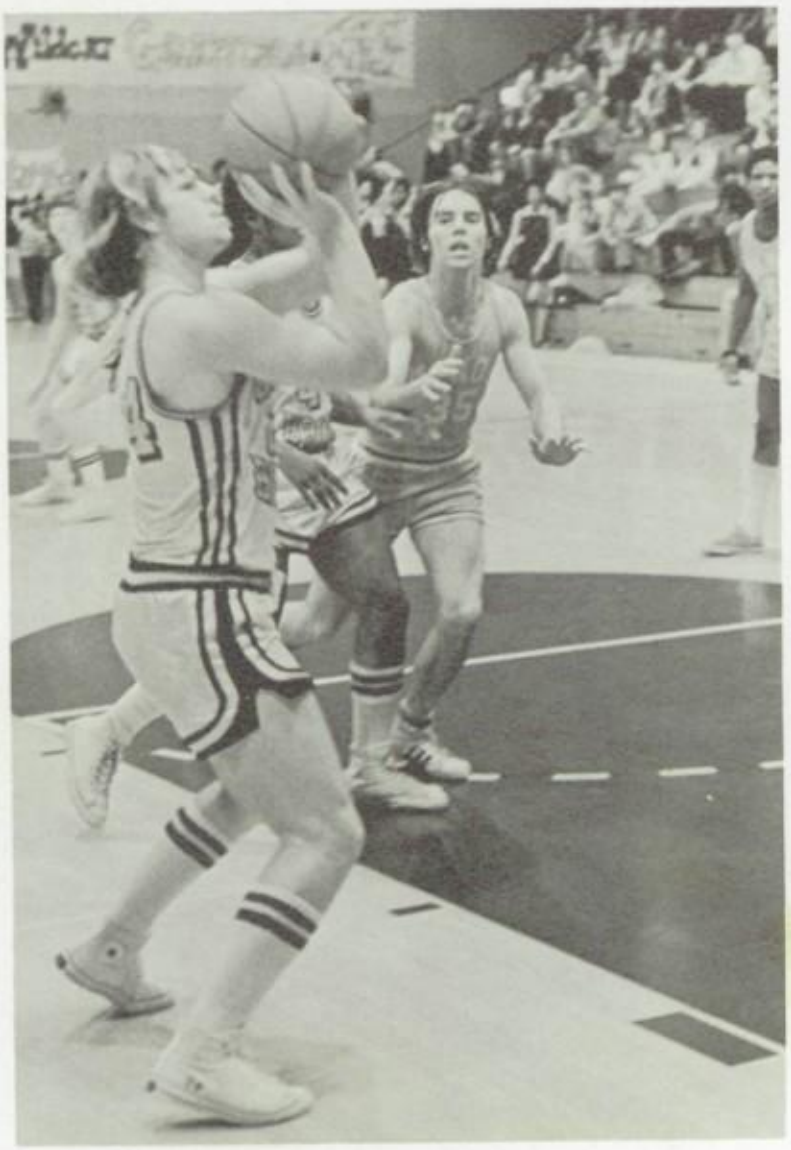
Mike Old, Earl Spellman lead in assists and free throws

Dropping the first two games to the Churchland Truckers and the Granby Comets, the Cat cagers finally got rolling with a 61-58 squeaky victory over Norfolk Catholic. And the tune really changed in the following game with a rollicking run over the Cradock Admirals with a 70-54.

But the Indian River Braves proved to be too much, taking the Cats for a 74-47 loss. In the First Colonial Invitational tournament, Great Bridge placed third, defeating the Kellam Knights but losing to First Colonial.

Following another loss to First Colonial in a non-conference game, the Cats clawed back to defeat Norcom in the first game of the conference season 50-40. Maintaining a winning streak, the cagers crushed the Western Branch Bruins 43-28.



Tony Creekmore makes first team All District

Revenge on Indian River was a must. The Cats stomped the Braves 56-50, thus avenging the earlier season loss. And the winning spell broke. Princess Anne, Churchland, and Deep Creek all halted the Cats. But the magic of victory came again. Disposing of Manor with a score of 61-58, the Cats with their renewed confidence sank the Cradock Admirals with a walloping 60-46. Outclawing the Tigers of Oscar Smith, the Cats handed them a 61-54 loss - to say nothing of the 61-53 tossed Deep Creek's way. And then Wilson shattered Wildcat hopes. In the Southeastern District tournament, Great Bridge stung the Deep Creek Hornets with a 55-51 in overtime. But the mighty Cat cagers met a sad defeat in the semi-finals by those archrival Braves 57-49.

Baby cagers compile 6 - 3 in District

The junior varsity basketball team romped through a great season. Led by the co-captains, Donnie Luster and Emanuel Upton, the Baby Wildcats coached by Mr. Royster compiled a 10-8 record, with 6-3 in the district. The most smashing victory was the 70-38 stinging of the Deep Creek Hornets.

Matcats gain seven wins for District third place

Seven wins out of nine - so went the Matcat season. Crushing Norfolk Catholic 60-6 in the first match got the team off to a spirited start - the score the highest ever achieved by Wildcat wrestlers. And then came another breakthrough - shattering Western Branch Bruins 59-0 - the largest margin of victory ever attained. At Cox during Christmas, the Matcats placed eight men in the final round and came off with four individual titlists: Billy Beasley at 105 pounds, Thomas Curl at UNL, Arthur Jones at 132, and Ricky Spruill at 155.

After losing to Deep Creek, the Matcats came to life again and trampled the Peninsula District champs of Menchville by a score of 37-12. Arthur Jones took the key win of the night by defeating 138-pound Regional champ Harry Webb 4-3. And the Matcats kept pinning on - sinking Admirals, scalping Braves. But the Smith Tigers outclawed the GB Cats by 27-18. This match, however, was the second and last defeat of the season. Both the Churchland Truckers and Manor Mustangs found the claws of the Cats just too much to handle.

Arthur Jones captures State championship

In the District tournament, the Wildcat wrestlers placed third. Arthur Jones came out as mighty number one. Raymond Arsenault and Billy Beasley captured second place honors; and Thomas Curl, Bo Moritz, Hardy Parker, and Joe Sigmon came in third. Brian Newman won a fourth spot, and Ricky Spruill who was ill was voted to fifth place.

Qualifying nine wrestlers for the Regionals, Great Bridge placed an impressive third in the tourney. Arthur Jones again came in first spot; Bo Moritz, third; Billy Beasley, Thomas Curl, and Ricky Spruill, fourth. And then came State! The Matcats walked off with a super fourth place. Defeating his opponent 8-2, Arthur Jones became the State champ. Thomas Curl seeded second with 2-1, while Billy Beasley came in fourth in the 105. Co-captains, Bo Moritz and Joe Sigmon, had led a real powerhouse.

Little Matcats end season with six wins

Leading the Little Matcats, Ken Trotman ended with an undefeated season. With six wins over three losses, the junior varsity wrestlers performed outstandingly. Brian Hinton, Doug Johnson, Mike Priest, and Tim Spruill proved able Cats and offer great prospects for another time around.

Honor society inducts forty-seven new members

Forty-seven new members accepted coveted bids to the National Honor Society on November 3rd. The candlelight ceremony was a true highlight. As nervously anticipating Juniors and Seniors sat in the assembly anxiously awaiting who would be tapped for their outstanding achievement in scholarship, leadership, service, and character, the tension lessened somewhat with each name called.

In November, four underclass members — Walter Broadnax, Richard Renfro, Stan Lancaster, and Wayne Old, attended a workshop held at the College of William and Mary. Sending Juniors enabled the society of capable leadership in the future. As the NHS awards a scholarship at graduation to a deserving Senior, money had to be raised. Therefore, members got themselves busy and sold candy — and more candy — at all home basketball games and wrestling matches. Another bright, fun spot in the lives of the Senior members was a banquet given in their honor by the Junior members of the society.

Athletes buy banner honoring football champs

Action all the way — the men in the Monogram Club involved themselves in various sports but also kept busy selling their Pepsis. During basketball games and wrestling matches, members sold the drinks in order to earn money for both service and social projects. The club purchased a super banner honoring the Southeastern District Championship football team of 1972. They placed the banner in the gymnasium to spur the indoor teams to greater heights. And there were parties! The club enjoyed the reputation of being a true party group. Never, however, did the members fail to exemplify and encourage good sportsmanship and athletic achievement.

Lady Cats place six All Stars

And the Lady Cats came through again! In an eventful Sports Day competition held on November 16, 1972, at Indian River High School, Great Bridge captured six All Star positions out of a possible eleven in field hockey. Coached by Miss Pendleton, the girls who shone for the green and gold were Elaine Ables, Beverly Cartwright, Dale Hammock, Juanita Poyner, Michele St. Germaine, and Cheryl Weston.

Girls' Intramurals integral part of Wildcat scene

Combining many different talents made Girls' Intramurals a definite success. Each girl was allotted time to perfect her special talent in the events offered. From track and field, basketball, field hockey, tennis, volleyball, archery, to gymnastics the ladies moved through a rewarding and enjoyable year. Meeting after school two days a week, the teams voted not to have captains. They knew that they would and could work well together. Described as cooperative, energetic, hard-working, and diligent by their sponsors, Miss Pendleton and Mrs. Reaser, the girls were an integral part of the Great Bridge scene.

Chorus organizes new varsity singing group

With only one chorus, the mixed chorus — the Choral department yet abounded with activity. However, there were two extra-curricular groups, the Choralettes and the newly formed Varsity Singers. Placing 15 students in the All Regional chorus, the groups surged forward to the All City and All State participation. The annual Christmas concert was a huge success. Instead of giving a spring conert, the chorus elected to present secular music during an assembly and an Easter cantata at the Oak Grove Methodist Church on Good Friday. Performing in Atlanta, Georgia, was a most rewarding experience. Along with the concert tour, the members took time out to visit Six Flags over Georgia.

Thespians aid theatre groups

Behind the scenes of every stage production went lots of hard work — by both the Thespian Society and the Stage Crew. Because of the dearth of materials for theatrical productions, the Thespians were busy collecting everything from props to make-up. In a Make-Up Drive, they collected various kinds of make-up, different styles of costumes, and basic stage scenery. Of course, the stage men were on hand at all times with their lighting know-how to assist with any production held in the auditorium. The Thespians also served as ushers for the Norfolk Little Theatre, as well as helped in the organization of the Chesapeake Little Theatre.

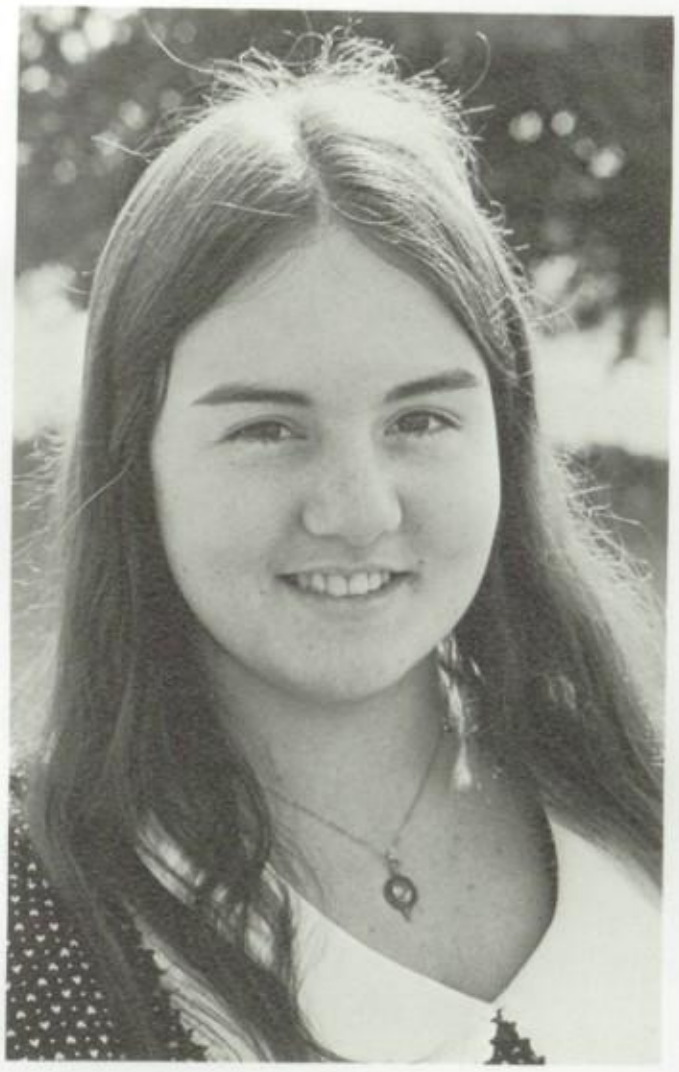
Folk Club works with Songsters

Generating a feeling of warmth and closeness, the Folk Club presented its message of brotherhood through its music. A small group — yet, they made themselves known in the area. The members worked closely with the Songmakers of Virginia, a group of top music performers in Tidewater. Every other month, a different member of the club held a party in his home with Songmaker artists as guests.

Future Teachers honor present teachers each month



Involved at the top — as well as at Great Bridge — the Future Teachers of America busied themselves with the business of teaching. Two members, Debbie Rowland and Nathaline Alexander, held district offices of treasurer and reporter, respectively. Six members represented the club at the State Convention held in February in Hampton. To show appreciation for having a great faculty, the FTA selected each month a Teacher of the Month, cleaned the teachers' lounges, and sponsored a Teacher Appreciation Day. So that they would have the necessary funds for their various activities, members sold green and gold pom pons during Homecoming Week. And it was not all work. Everyone had a splendid time at the Christmas party and the banquet honoring parents in May.

Those lucky people who left at the end of the fourth bell really were not so lucky at all because they were members of the Distributive Education Clubs of America who were on their way to work in the business world. VICA wins superior awards in District

Students who received on-the-job training made up the ICT class: this class in turn composed the Vocational Industrial Club of America Chapter, led by Raymond Jones, president. Activities included attending the VICA District I planning session and the State convention and competing in the District I and Regional I contests. At the District convention, VICA took superior awards in club scrapbook, essay, and safety contests. They received second place in safety and third place in essay and club contests on the regional level.

Linda Ekleberry, Buddy Doxie, and William Phillips went to the State convention in Richmond as delegates. The success of the club culminated at the annual Employer-Employee banquet at which each club member proudly presented his own boss.

Delta darlings win coveted Ace award

Attending different denominational church services once a month as a group was in keeping with the Christian spirit of the Delta Tri-Hi-Y. Other activities included participating in Klean Our Polluted Environment week, joining in with the Y-Vote week for the November election, helping the white cane sale for eye donors, and selling mints for the YMCA. On the homefront, the Deltas held their annual Battle of the Bands, managed the coat room for the basketball and wrestling seasons, and most of all, washed and cleaned the trophy cases in the corridors. Engaging in homecoming festivities, they presented the float "We've Come A Long Way, Baby" in keeping with the theme "Turn Back the Hands of Time." Always attending the district meetings and sending three delegates to the Model General Assembly helped enable the Delta Darlings to once again capture the coveted Ace Award.

Dorcas most active club at GBHS

And Dorcas did it again - another year of total involvement. The most active club at Great Bridge actually began its work during the summer when the ladies sent their president, Sally Graham, and sponsor, Mrs. Bernard, to the Massanetta Leadership Training Conference. With the start of school and football getting under way, Dorcas perked up the stadium by painting the band section. Taking advantage of the season, members sold stadium cushions in order to add to their scholarship fund. And at Homecoming with their "Battle of Great Bridge," the first place award was theirs in float competition.

Service was the keyword: other activities included contributing $228 to the YMCA World Service by selling candy mints; participating in KOPE week by sponsoring a poster contest for the Klean Our Polluted Environment week; sponsoring a "Litter Raid" after Homecoming to clean up the campus; painting the outside trash cans at school green and gold; adopting a family for Christmas and providing them with clothing, food, and presents; conducting a school wide drive to collect cat and dog food for the Norfolk SPCA during Be Kind to Animals week; and sponsoring seven members to participate in the cerebral palsy Walk-a-Thon.

Y-Vote week resulted in more activity. The club became involved in encouraging qualified citizens to vote by calling registered voters and reminding them to vote on November 7th and then went to the polls and worked by handing out campaign literature for the candidates. To show further their keen awareness of good citizenship, Dorcas sent five members - three delegates and two office holders, Beverly Southerland as a page and Sally Graham as assistant clerk of the senate - to the Virginia YMCA Model General Assembly in Richmond. In the combined social and service department, the ladies held forth. At Christmas members prepared Christmas candy jars for the teachers' tables in the cafeteria.

The Dorcas alumnae were guests at a delightful tea during the Christmas holidays, and since Christmas is the joyful sound of music, on December 21st Dorcas did some old-fashioned caroling in the Great Bridge area. After the singing, the girls and their dates went to Lynne Hearring's home for a party. Indicative of club action, Terri Fleshman was elected Secretary of the Tidewater District.

Susie Forbes walks off with Miss Great Bridge crown

The magic of "Over the Rainbow" came to life as the Dorcas Tri-Hi-Y presented the annual Miss Great Bridge Pageant. On February 3rd the T.T. Turner Memorial Auditorium filled with excitement of anticipating "Who will she be?"

With the opening of the curtain came the ten contestants singing "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." The master of ceremonies, Mr. Ron Lee, then introduced each of the ladies vying for the coveted title. Talent ranging from dramatic speaking to baton twirling made an evening of true enjoyment for all. Not only did the contestants present their talents, but also they faced evening gown competition.

When Mr. Lee announced Elaine Ables as Miss Congeniality and Becky Lyle as Most Talented, the tension soared. But the spell finally broke as the moment actually arrived: the new Miss Great Bridge for 1973 — Miss Susie Forbes! Kristy Tatem captured second runner up, and Debbie Reid walked off with first runner up honors.

Having served as chairman, Debbie Freeman saw a memorable time for all presented — from the opening number with the ladies decked out in their pastel gowns to the final announcement of our own Miss Great Bridge.

Doria dolls work and frolic from church to school to beach

August — That's when the Doria Tri-Hi-Y began their work by sending their president, Kathy Springle, to the Massanetta Leadership Training Conference. With school opening came the formal induction of fourteen new members. Again it was time to get the homecoming float in order — and the girls walked off with a third place. October brought forth the participation of Y-Vote week: the Dolls made posters and phoned registered voters urging them to vote as well as called other qualified citizens to inform them where they might go to register and to vote. President Kathy Springle served as chairman of the school mock election and the assembly that preceded the voting. Further showing their interest in government, three members — Sue Bishop, Debbie Moore, and Becky Sever — went to the Model General Assembly in Richmond.

Other activities included the selling of mints for World Service, competing in a poster contest concerning the environment, and attending as a group different denominational church services each month.

Not all was work: the Dolls played and entertained. Came the warm weather, the ladies invaded Virginia Beach.

And to keep in touch with the older Dolls, an alumnae tea was given at Kathy Boucher's home.

Delma devils baby-sit for PTA members

When Delma Devils got together, a pajama or beach party became a real happening However, the ladies did not spend all their time in play fun, but they also involved themselves in service projects such as providing a baby-sitting service for the Butts Road PTA and serving at the Hickory Ruritan annual dinner. In order to raise money, members held car washes and sold doughnuts. Part of the money was spent to send delegates to the District Conference. Being a Christian organization, the club promoted church attendance for all members, sometimes attending religious services as a group.

Bible Club holds sing-ins

Open to all students, the Active Young People for Jesus Christ began each day with prayer and fellowship. Members of the Bible Club distributed testament tracts throughout the school to help others become aware of the Word. During their meetings, speakers from the local churches brought messages to the group. Helping Kirk-Cone Rehabilitation Center with their Christmas party proved a great enjoyment for all. Music drifting through the corridors after school was delightful evidence the club was involved in another "sing in." To finance projects, the members sold candy in the teachers' lounge.

'Big Bertha' takes team far and wide

And travel they did! From new York to North Carolina — to say nothing of taking in the state of Virginia, the Debate team captured over twenty trophies and awards in competition on the district, regional, and state levels. Bill Parrish served most capably as the captain of the intellectual Wildcats. Also the team hosted two important tournaments: the Great Bridge Four-Man Debate Tournament on October 28th and the Great Bridge Invitational Debate and Speech Tournament on February 23rd and 24th. On the Forensics team, Joe Slane was the only one to make the haul all the way to State.

FNA participates in Health Career Day

Again the Great Bridge chapter of the Future Nurses of America sponsored two successful blood drives at school for the Red Cross. Members of the club assisted the Red Cross workers throughout each day in any way they were asked — from holding the hand of a frightened donor to the serving of coffee, cokes, and snacks. In the two drives nearly 200 pints of blood for the bank were collected.

In order to learn more about the field of medicine — and nursing in particular — the club participated in Health Career Day at both DePaul and Norfolk General Hospitals. Visiting the practical nursing class at the Chesapeake Technical Center and observing the routine at the Oak Hill Convalescent Home gave the members further insight into the medical profession. With a rollicking good time at a beach party in June, the club ended the year with the joy of frivolity — a far removed happiness from the joy they had experienced from helping others.

FBLA makes fruit baskets for aged

To Old Dominion University for a workshop - so began the year for the Future Business Leaders of America. Not time for float decorating but a desire to be a part of Homecoming, club members "turned back the hands of time" simply by dressing as little kids and riding bicycles in the parade. To earn money, the club sold kits of all-occasion cards. Involvement in service projects brought forth the making of fruit baskets at Christmas for the aged, selling trash bags to help in the March of Dimes, and collecting for WGH's "Penny Pitch."

Club enjoys 'Man of La Mancha'

Under the direction of its new sponsor, Mrs. Cavender, the Spanish Club really started moving. In October, the club submitted a float in the Homecoming parade, which invited both alumni and student to "Turn Back to the Golden Days of Yesteryear."
A visit to the Tidewater Dinner Theatre to see "Man of LaMancha" was a most exciting and interesting evening for all.
Then at Christmas, the members adopted a family, insuring at least one underprivileged family of a Merry Christmas.
The organization of the student-faculty basketball game in April was a most difficult task but it turned out to be one of great fun in the end.

Fund for member to travel and study established

Establishment of a scholarship fund - one of the major accomplishments of the German Club. A first at Great Bridge, the fund was established to help a member travel and study in Germany during the summer. For entertainment, the club held a bowling party. Then the members gave themselves a Christmas party with German food and decorations - the whole bit. At one of the most enjoyable meetings, Major Owens showed slides he took while in Germany, giving the club first hand information about the country each held so much interest in.

Club takes spring jaunt to Washington

Selling French perfume in September gave the French Club an early start on their fund raising project - a trip to Washington, D.C., in the spring. In addition to the yummy perfume sales, members also sold coffee in the teachers' lounge to make additional funds. In Washington, the club had a ball. Not only did they visit the French Embassy but also they dined in an honest to goodness French restaurant, savoring that exotic cuisine. The L'Alliance Francaise sponsored a French Fete at the Chrysler Museum in Norfolk, at which the club had a sidewalk cafe.

Tommy Martin earns District medalist award

At last a winning season! After five years, the golf team finally made it to the top. With the ability of the Martin brothers — Tommy and Mike — there was a record of two wins, two losses, and three ties. In the district tournament, Tommy Martin had a low score of 71 to lead the field. He was also a district medalist. Overall the team finished second in the district. Returning to the team will be Mike Martin, Jeff White, and David Fulp.

Netmen end with 3-6

With a team record of 3 - 6, the netmen had a very disappointing season. The top three men were J.T. Jennings and Ed Harris with 3 - 4 records and Phil Smith with a 2 - 5 record. Losing five of the top six players, the team will spend the upcoming year re-building.

Cats place second in city

This season proved to be a challenging one for the Wildcat cross country team. The only returnees from last year's Southeastern District championship team were Jeremiah Cuffee and Wendell Sivels. Even though it was a rebuilding year for the team, they came through to win four meets — while losing only one. The team came in second in the city meet and fourth in the district.

Jim Morrisette selected outstanding trackman

Finishing their season with a 2 - 3 record, the track team consisted of mostly sophomores, making the record a really good one. Coach Hamrick said that the season was one of building the team and that next season should be better than ever. Both District Shot Put Champion, Dickey Carey, and Robert Bradshaw, outstanding discus thrower, made it to regional championships, where Carey qualified to State. Top sprinters, Leroy Rodwell and Donnie Luster, along with distance men, Jeremiah Cuffee and Jerry Laumann, received special recognition for their sporting efforts. Jim Morrisette won the outstanding trackman award for the season.

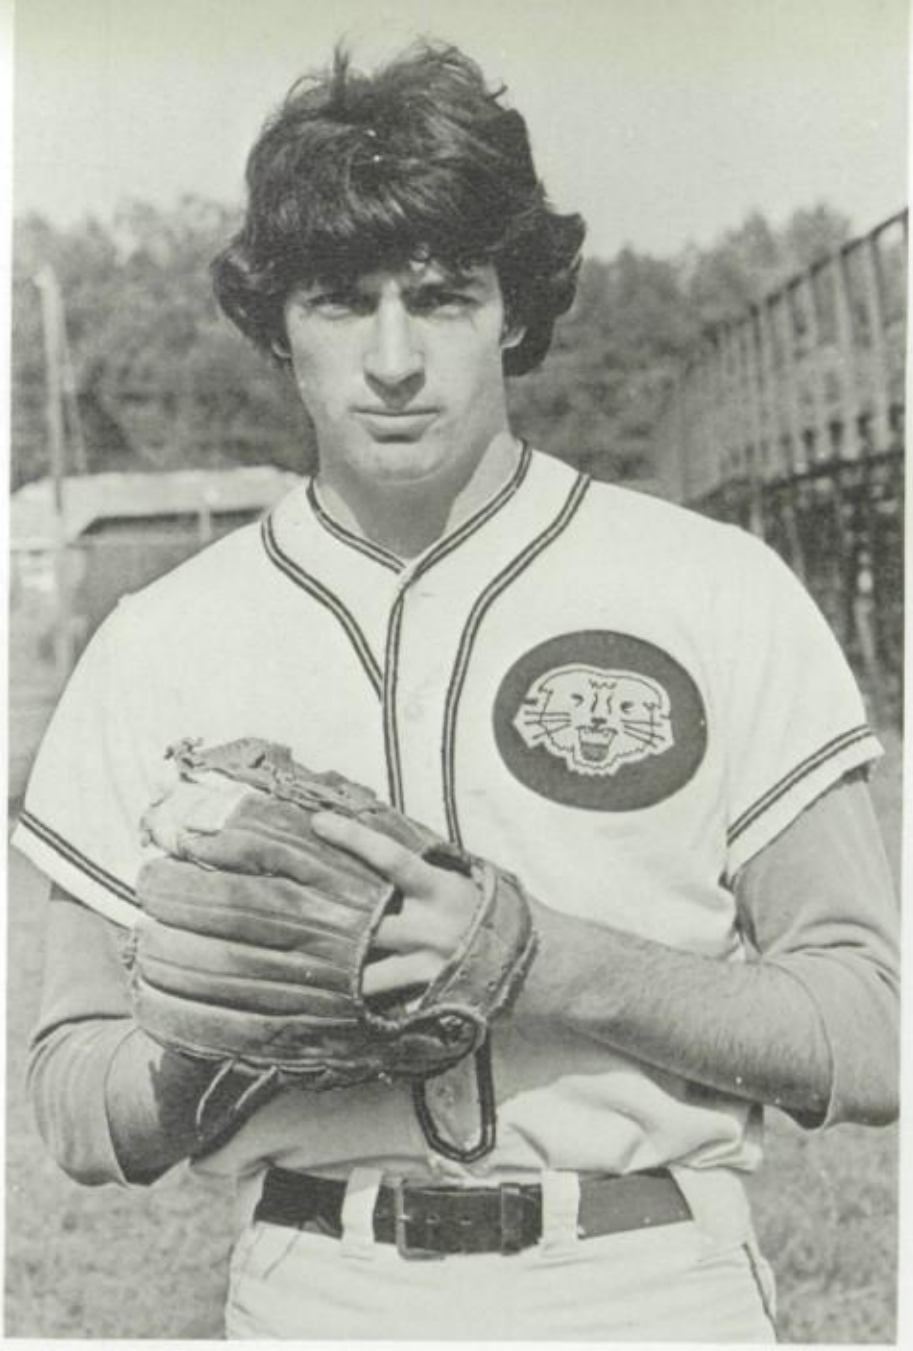
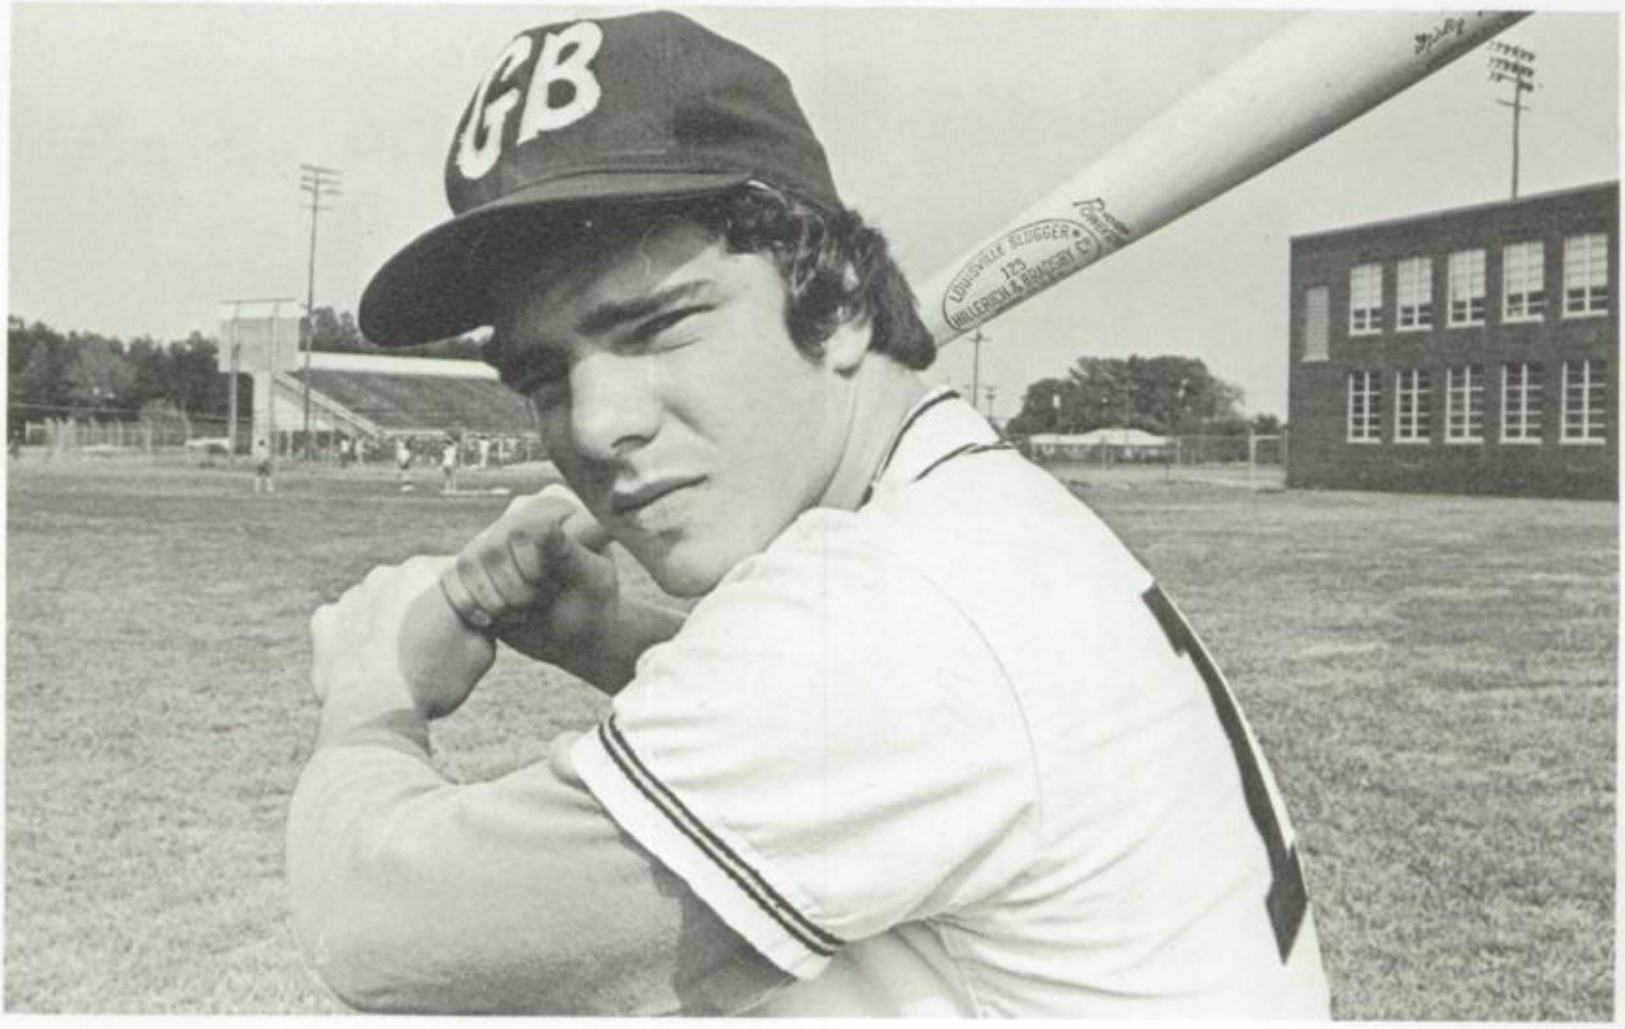
Mickey Carey leads hitting with .370

Spring '72 saw the Wildcats post a 5 - 7 record. Despite this mediocre record, the team, under the coaching of Mr. Oliver, proved to be a powerful opponent for any club. Key wins over Deep Creek and Cradock kept the team in contention throughout the season. However, a heartbreaking 4 to 1 loss to Norcom in 10 innings almost tamed the mighty Cats. The Wildcat pitching staff was led by John Mamoudis and Donnie Toxey. Mickey Carey led the hitting with a .370 batting average. With returning players like Curt Hall and John Mamoudis in the batting department and Stanley Lancaster, John Mamoudis, and Donnie Toxey in the pitching department, the Wildcats expect to have a very successful season next year.





Top: Pitcher John Mamoudis, is winner of a 1 hit 2 - 1 ball game against Deep Creek.
Lower: Mickey Carey becomes a top hitter with a .370 batting average.

'A time for us' enjoyed by all

Hosted by the Junior class, the prom on May 13 at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center was indeed "A Time for Us" all. As each couple entered through a rose arbor, an unforgettable night began — memories forever and always. For the first time two bands, the Five O'Clock Shadow and Slap Water Jack, provided just the right beat to please any discriminating taste. Midway through the evening, the Juniors honored the Seniors by dedicating the theme of the prom in the art form of music: "A Time for Us." This dance was only for Seniors and their dates. The bewitching hour came all too soon — couples, gussied up in their formal clothes and carrying their champagne glass and bouquet favors, went their own ways for sumptuous meals or whatever suited their particular fancy. Yes, it was truly "A Time for Us" — a time for us to remember through the years.

Thirty seniors selected for hall of fame

And someone, somehow, always loomed above the rest! Again, the Senior class elected to select by popular vote those seniors who will always remain foremost in their minds. Not only did the class choose thirty distinctive seniors from among their peers, but also the class took a poll and requested that these selected seniors be pictured in the annual.

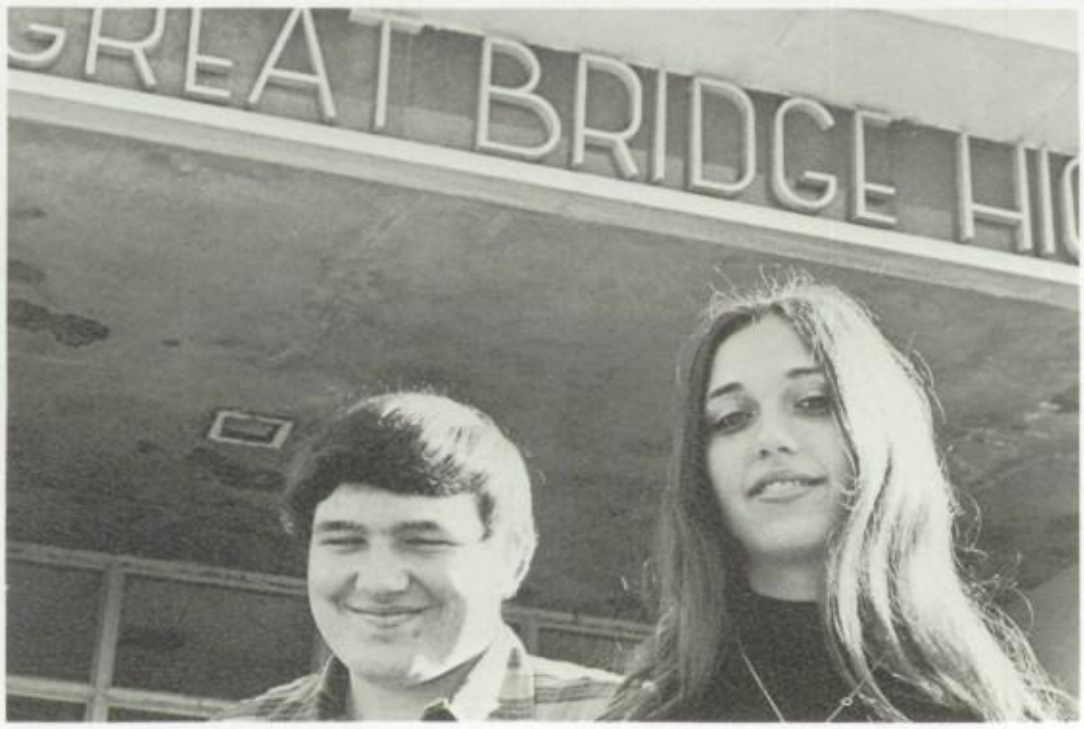
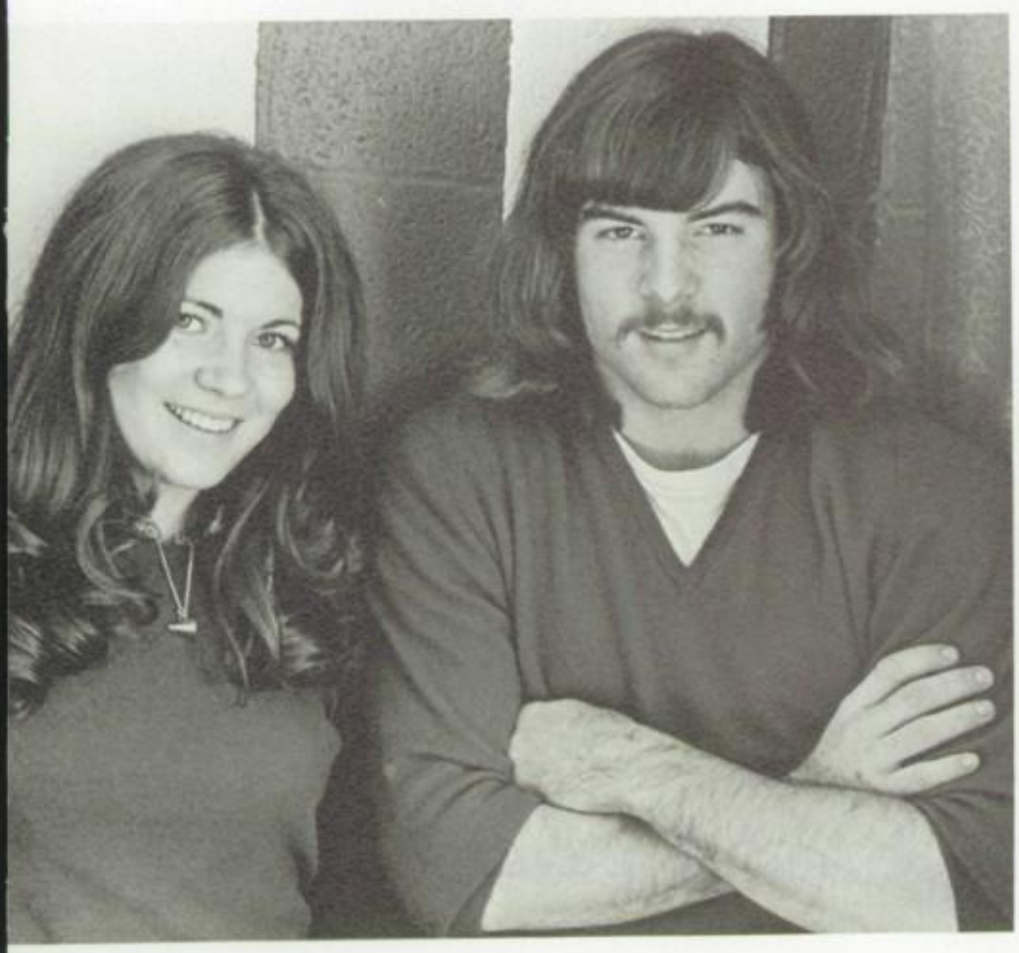
Lower left: Most Likely to Succeed — Al Root (Absent from picture — Jo Taychert)
Lower right: Best Dressed — Ronald Heckstall and Michellene McCadden
Far right: Most Cooperative — Kenny Powers and Arlene Nicholas



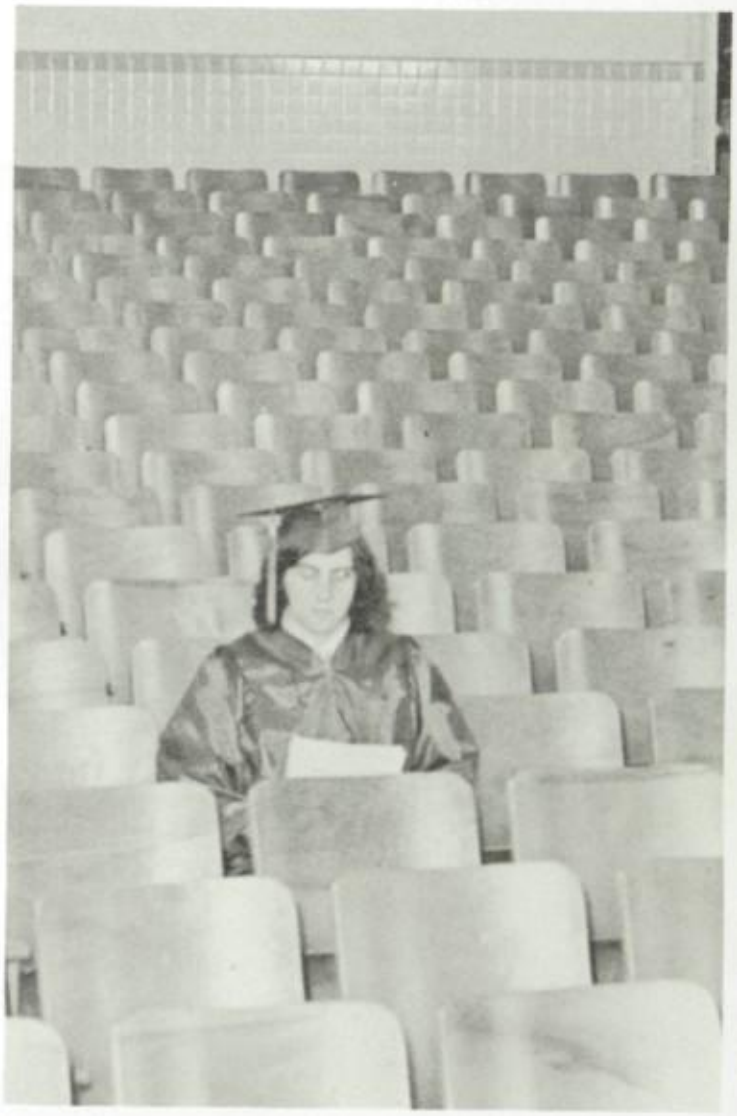


Seven days taken for selections

Since the class was so very large, it was decided that no one senior could be selected for more than one category. Thus, the voting took place over a series of seven days, with Uncle Ron announcing the selections each day. In the final analysis, the class had selected their own special Hall of Fame.

To live or to exist challenges class

"The choice: To Live or To Exist" — that was the decision facing the 279 members of the 1972 graduating class as the commencement ceremonies began. Bishop Henry A. Bryant gave the Invocation. The president of the class, Marion J. Scarboro, delivered the welcoming address with a feeling of "Relief and Regret." David W. Alderman, president of the Student Cooperative Association, expressed his views towards "Living, Not Existing." The president of the National Honor Society, Bart G. Broadnax, conveyed that "The Challenge Is Ours" — to live or merely exist. Principal of the school, Mr. Harry B. Blevins presented the awards and scholarships and loans amounting to $232,785 — doubling the previous year's total. The Rev. Phillip W. Thomas gave the Benediction. The Class of 1972 was now on its own — to make the decision that will affect them the rest of their lives; to live or to exist.



Upper left: "Relief and Regret" — Marion Scarboro ponders the two emotions he shares with the class he has led for nine months.
Upper right: Mr. Blevins reminds the Seniors that decisions will be theirs — to make or to avoid.
Far lower left: Amazing — one little piece of paper represents twelve long years of hard work.
Lower left: The Seniors get it all together for their last line up.
Lower center: And here they are — 379 strong!
Lower right: Sounding their final notes, Penny Owens and La-Verne Wingate play the Alma Mater.

Students keep ALIVE and ON THE MOVE

And what a year of involvement it was — full of fun and frolic, yet enough of the serious to keep Wildcats reminded of why they were really here. The football team became Champs in the District; five wrestlers went all the way to State; basketball clawed the way to the semi-finals in the District.

The ladies, too, captured titles: Billie Kay Jones, the Homecoming queen, and Susie Forbes, the Miss Great Bridge. Talent exuded a-plenty! The Variety Show could not be topped.

Changes came: ladies joined the R.O.T.C. program. A Drill Team was formed. But some things remained the same: the band kept up its excellent half-time routines. The cheerleaders led spirited Wildcat fans. Great Bridge stayed Number One: students gave over $1300.00 to the Christmas fund for the needy.

Classes were pretty good. They were humanized. We learned about all facets of life — from the very practical to the ideal.

Dance — yes, we danced — at the prom, at the homecoming, at the Sadie Hawkins.

Accepting the "do nots" became a routine thing, as well as getting used to those SCA stickers we had to buy for our cars.

As the last bus left in June, not only the graduating Seniors carried Mr. Blevins' message with them. We had laughed and cried, played and worked, agreed and rebelled, learned and forgotten. We had had another great 180 days: we had been involved Great Bridge Wildcats — ALIVE and ON THE MOVE.

The ESTABLISHMENT

And a teacher — or administrator — became my friend. Members of the faculty — each in his special way — helped me to find myself, helped me to realize that I as an individual am important. These people became the deciders at moments in my life. They took the time to answer my questions: they gave me help when I needed it the most. Struggling to keep their classes stimulating, teachers sought new ideas and ways to interest me as I grew to realize that Great Bridge has an administration and faculty aware of today's world.

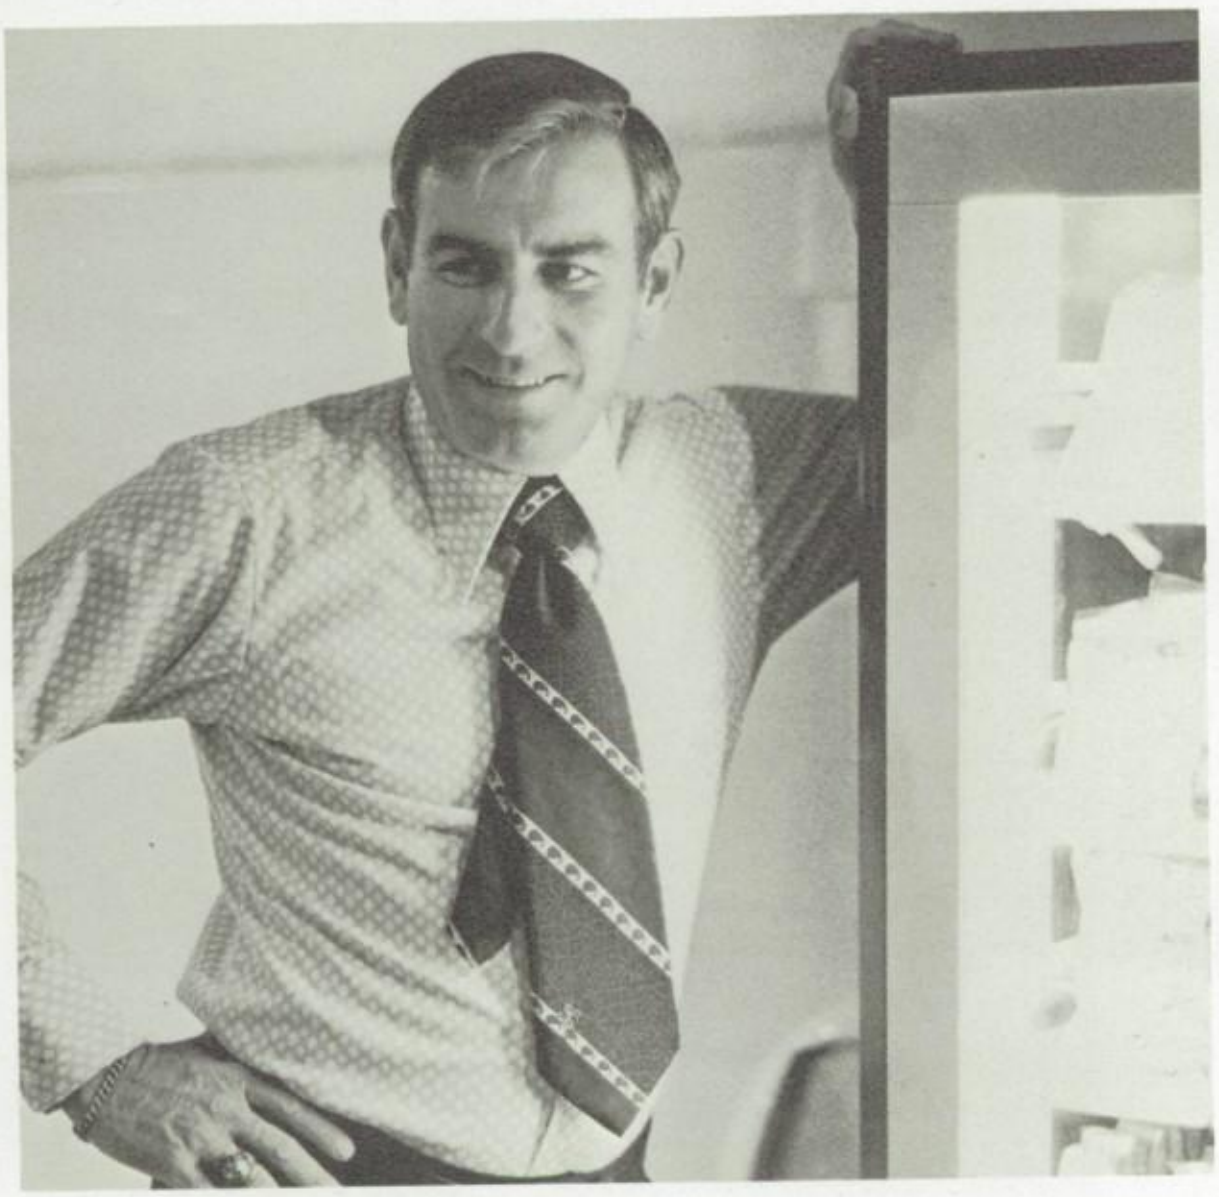
Mr. James E. Calhoun
Assistant Principal
B.A., Elon College
M. Ed., University of Virginia

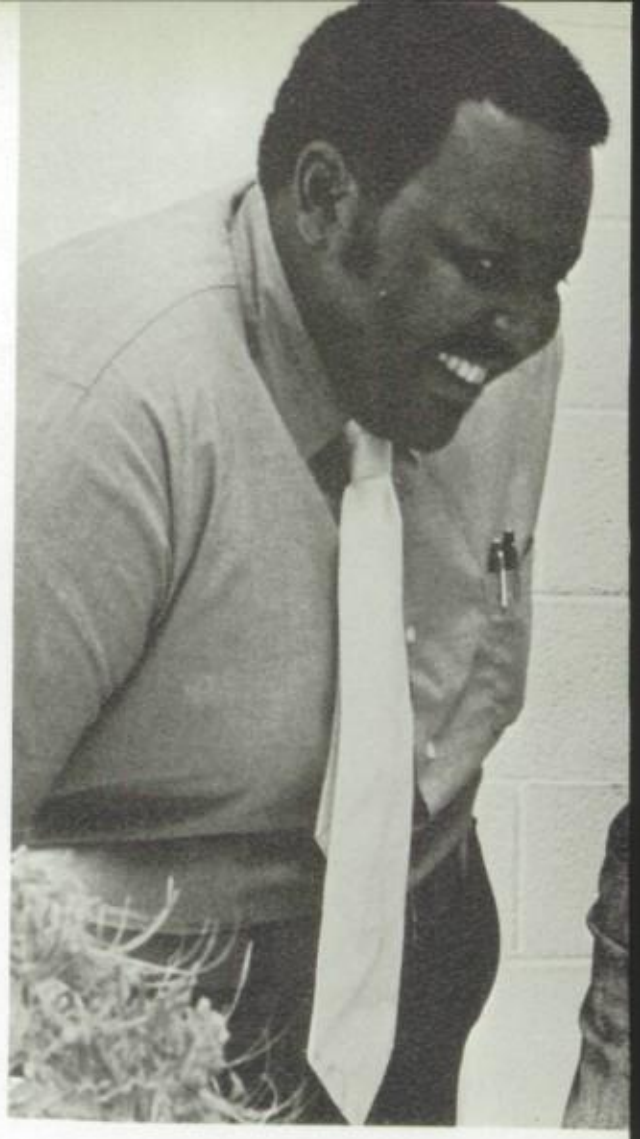
Mr. Calhoun honored by Causeway staff

No one — but no one — made the students more aware that the establishment was ALIVE and ON THE MOVE than Mr. Calhoun with his new image of snappy clothes and longer hair. Having taught a variety of classes — from the sixth grade at the junior high school to business subjects and driver education on the high school level, he has served as assistant principal of Great Bridge High for the past five years. In addition to his responsibilities in these capacities, Mr. Calhoun was — and still is — a member of the coaching staff. Besides being one of the finest assistant coaches in football today, Mr. Calhoun also worked with basketball — coaching a team that was state runner-up. Students affectionately call him J.C. They know that he is firm — but fair — in any decision he makes and that he will tolerate nothing but the most exemplary in the youth, whether it be behavior, clothes, or studies. A coach, a disciplinarian, a teacher, but most of all a friend — for being all of these wrapped up in one, THE 1973 CAUSEWAY staff has proudly dedicated this annual to Mr. James E. Calhoun.



Administration tolerates outdoor smoking arena

Administrative Excedrin headaches numbered in the myriads. But despite the many upsets in routine of the school day, the administration managed not to succumb and to keep both faculty and students alike on their toes. The year was a smooth-running one: the school world presented problems — problems that were overcome by coping realistically with any situation for the good of the student body. New attendance procedures were inaugurated, liberal dress permitted, and an outdoor smoking arena tolerated. And through all the hassle, students found friendly faces of the administration — not just people who remained behind ominous closed doors remote from their world. Mr. Blevins, Mr. Calhoun, Mr. Jones, and Mrs. Tatem remained real human beings — to be rapped with, disciplined by, or directed by onto the right path.



After dancing to the beat of the Now generation, Mr. and Mrs. Blevins and Mr. and Mrs. Calhoun take a breather at the prom.

Teachers form impressions first day

Launched into a new, unexplored world of faces, the faculty and staff began an exciting year on September 5. Summer school had been taught, degrees pursued, and trips taken. Names on IBM lists became mischievous, friendly, or defiant faces. Clues to students' opinions and personalities embedded themselves in teachers' minds. The year passing day by day, these personalities developed into friends, enemies, or just students. Out of all the noisy annoyances and interesting discussions, teachers knew a part of the future's new world had just passed before their eyes.

Extra tasks confront faculty

Twenty-four hours in a day was sometimes just not enough. After the hustle and bustle of the normal school day, teachers trekked from the world of people crowded halls into the after hour duties. Stacks of papers bulged stuffed briefcases, awaiting the red point of the pen. Chaperoning assignments, advising clubs and publications, coaching teams and cheerleaders — all ate their way into the lives of the dedicated teachers.

Teachers real people after final bell

And teachers were people too. They scrambled into Skylarks, Cougars, and Gran Torinos — regaining a renewed vitality for another life. They had shopping to do, meals to cook, lawns to mow, classes to attend, floors to scrub, gardens to plow, or maybe a jaunt to a convention or meeting — all these before finding time for a relaxing beer or martini or a quiet moment with the newspaper or a book. Teachers had to be tireless, concerned, intellectual people who played many parts in the course of their lives.

Apathy infects too many GBHS students

Sleepy eyes and bored faces — all a part of a day's work for the teacher. But the problem reached an epidemic state as the year wore on. Trips had been taken; banquets had been eaten; dances had been danced. As each anticipated event became a reality, students slumped more and more into the familiar pattern of apathy and teachers struggled harder and harder to overcome this ever-occurring obstacle. Despite all efforts, only a few — if any — classes escaped all apathy, the syndrome of the American student.

Office staff enlarged

Behind the scenes was always a major part of the day. Often out of the limelight at Great Bridge were active secretarial, custodial, cafeterial, and nursing staffs. Mrs. Rose joined the secretarial staff this year, helping primarily with attendance procedures. The school was always pleasantly clean, and despite the trillions of complaints about the lunchroom food, when lunch time rolled around, students and faculty were glad to have "ye olde" cafeteria near.

Counselors help with personal hang-ups

Great Bridge High, as always, took pride in the outstanding rapport between faculty and students. Students knew that they could go to the teachers for various reasons, whether it be a question concerning a subject or the need for a rap session. In addition to interested teachers, students knew that they could go to their guidance counselors for any assistance — from dealing with personal hang-ups to deciding on what college to attend. Great Bridge was the place to learn — to grow into worthwhile citizens — and the faculty surely helped along the way.

The ADVERTISERS

Great Bridge grew and grew and grew. More and more I found out just how much the business people of the community have committed themselves to making my world a better place to live. Businesses surged forth as they were patronized by our local folk. I learned that with a molding of the ways and means of all today, my tomorrow had been made more secure.

'Cats recall G.B. haps

The year finally passed. Imbedded in mental images, people and things remained a part of a memory. There was a funny face, a unique dress of habit, or a new inclusion into student life. Each person or event, as small as it seemed at the time, somehow became molded into someone or something unforgettable. This was Great Bridge High; these were Wildcats.

W is for Wildcats ON THE MOVE

Causeway staff sends thanks to supporters

The 1973 Causeway staff:
Cindy Currin — editor-in-chief
Lynne Hearring — assistant editor
Debbie Rowland — advertising manager
Becky Sever — sales manager
Denise Lee — business assistant
Marsha Blevins — co-copy editor
Kathy Boucher — co-copy editor
Cathy Chandler — copy assistant
Karen Harper — typist
Walt Broadnax — co-sports editor
Ed Taychert — co-sports editor
Mrs. Lou Phelps — advisor

The last deadline had been met: the last ad had been sold. It had been a long, hard drive; but we made it — but not alone. Only through the cooperation and support of many fine folk did we somehow see a different yearbook become a reality. So with deep appreciation, the staff sent thanks to the following:

Mr. Blevins — for being the greatest Daddy Wildcat we could hope to have and allowing us to buy our very own electric typewriter and to have our yellow pages:

Administration and teachers — for being so pleasant when we knew that annual was a dirty word in their books;

Classes and clubs — for supporting us financially to help keep us ALIVE and ON THE MOVE;

Advertisers and patrons — for providing monetary support so that we could sell the annual for only $7.00;

Mr. Kelley — for taking many action and candid shots so that this book will be one replete with fond memories;

Mr. Perry — for sharing his ideas to help us bring to the student body an entirely different book;

Mr. McIntosh — for seeing that we could get a new picture of Mr. Calhoun without his knowing why;

McIntosh Studios — for giving us splendid senior portraits and sending Jerry to Great Bridge to take pictures;

Mr. Hash — for school day pictures;

the Great Bridge student body — for being ALIVE and ON THE MOVE, thus giving us a theme; and the judges at Columbia, Minnesota, and Virginia High School League — for making objective criticism of The 1972 Causeway and awarding us a first place even though we wanted a dedication, senior superlatives, and many sports pages.

Without both the financial and moral support of these people, as well as many others, The 1973 Causeway could never have been published. Cooperation from all proved to us that good people are ALIVE and ON THE MOVE.

WISER and

HAPPIER

We are a little wiser and a lot happier now . . .

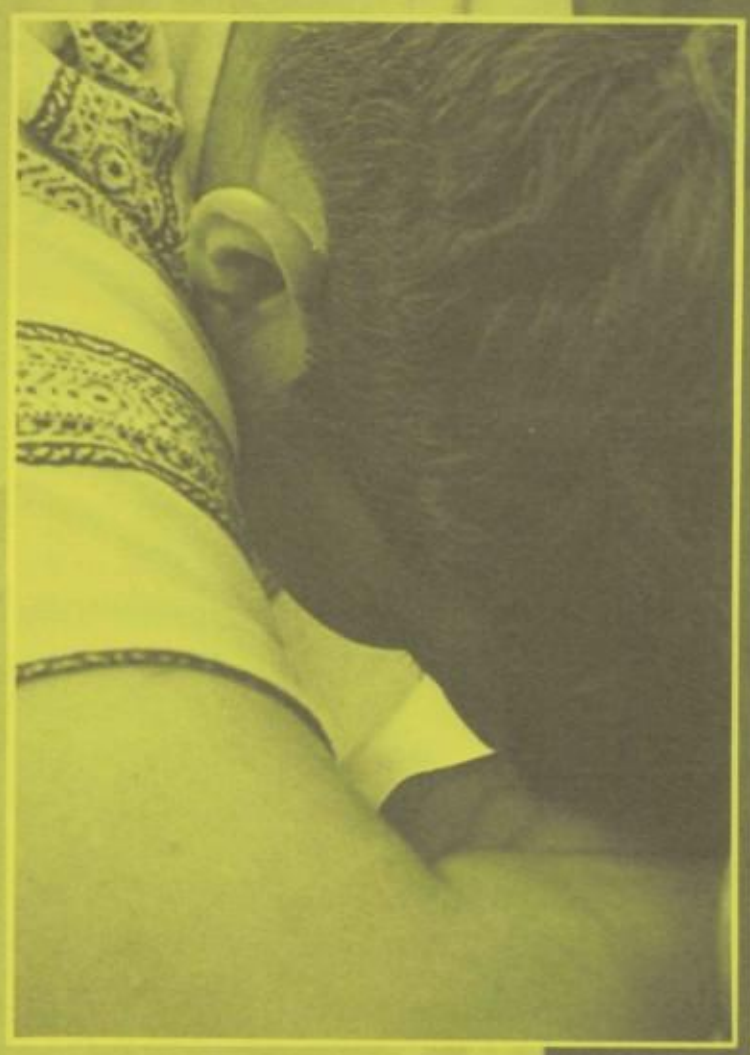
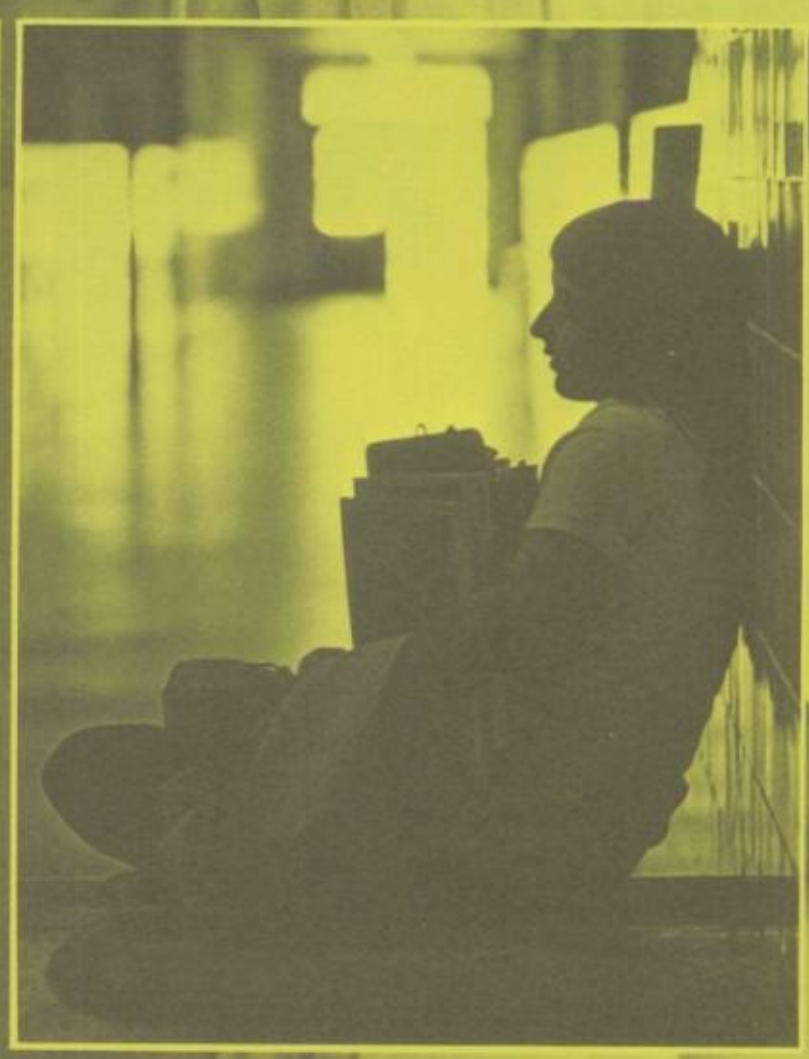
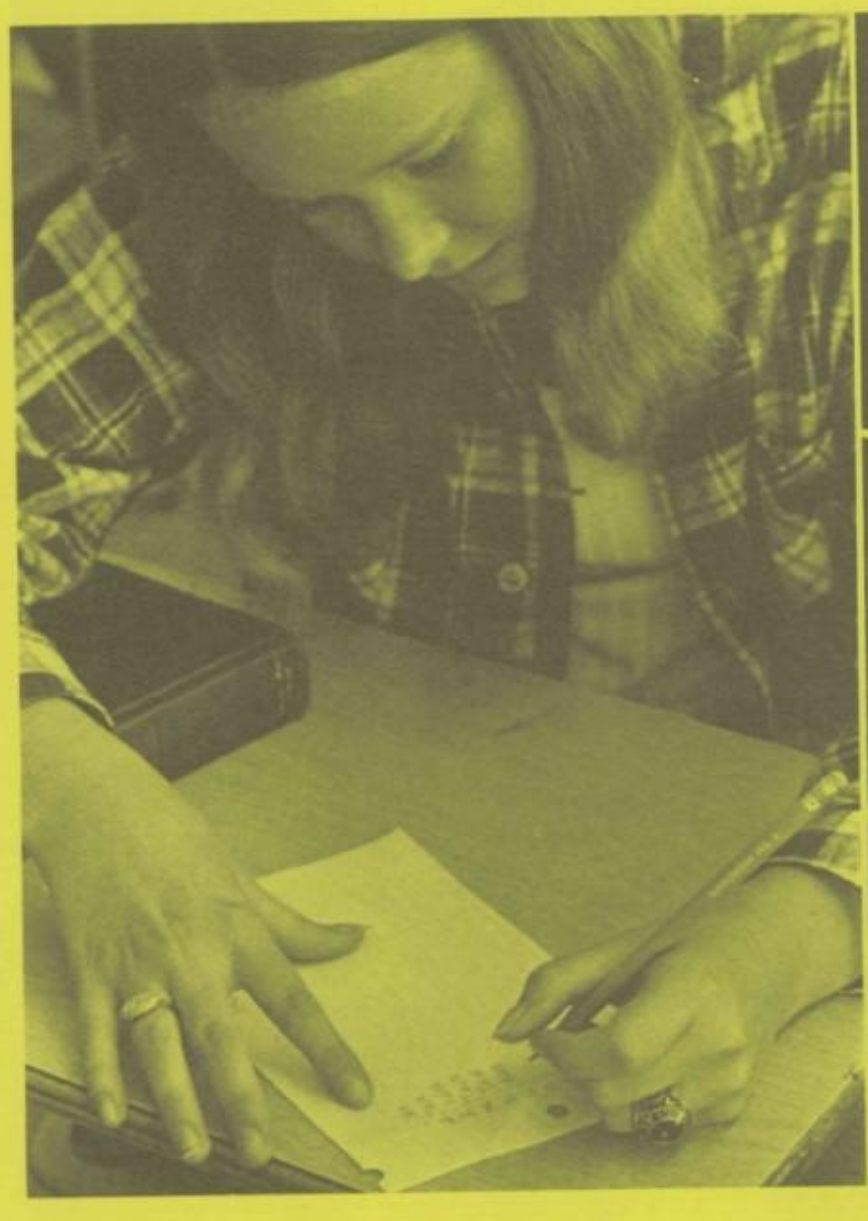
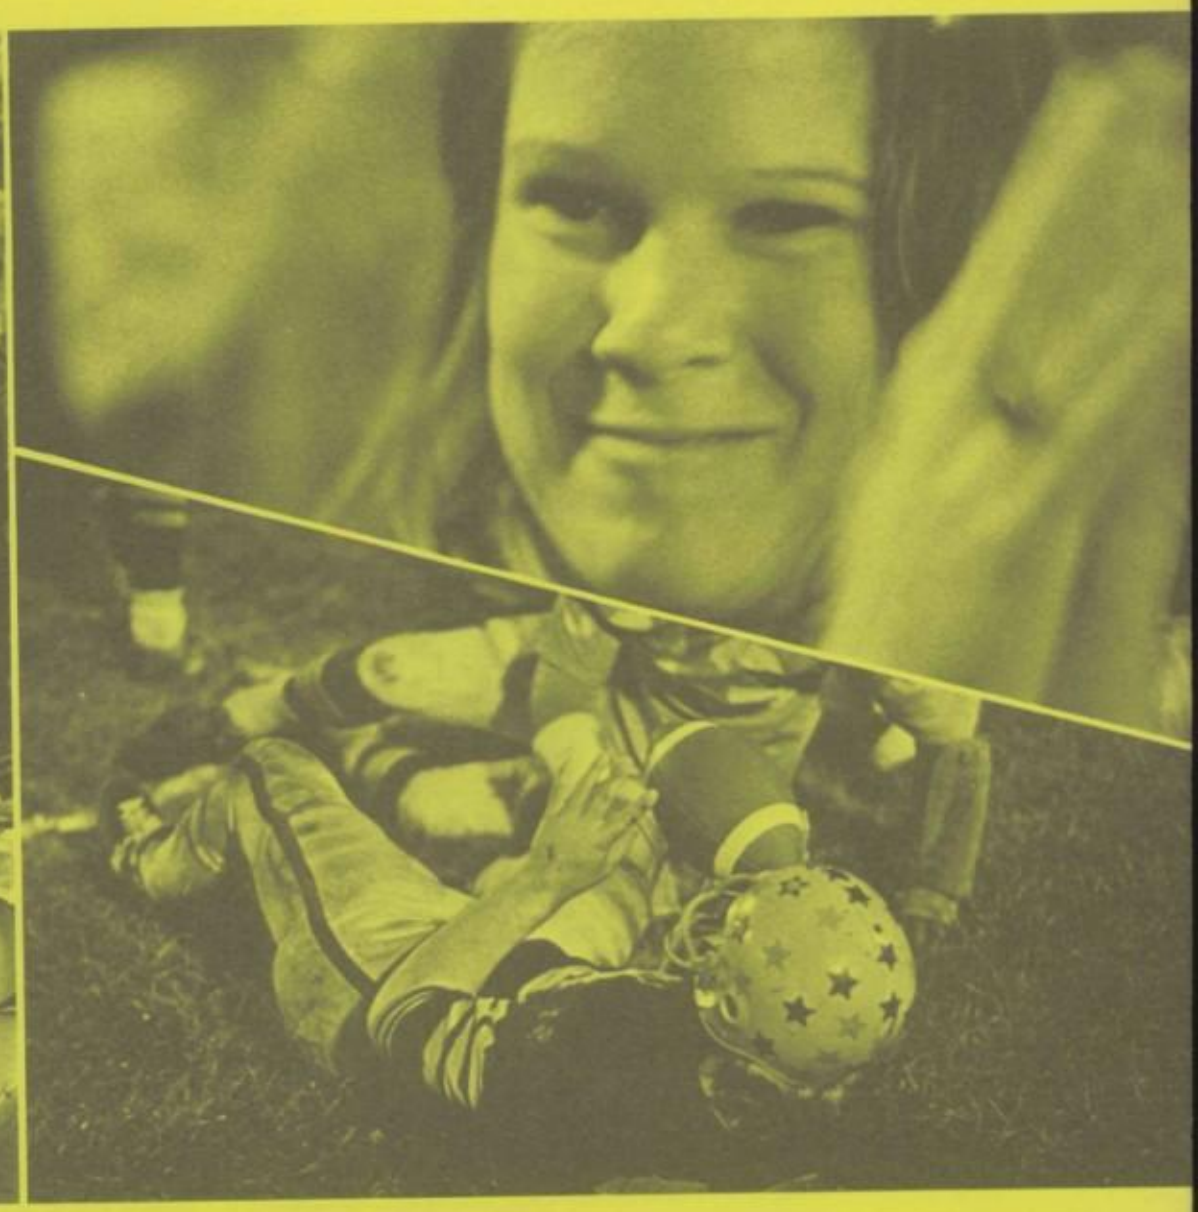
But we are sad
to be leaving . . .









We took steps

FORWARD and BACKWARD

We had our trials and joys.
We faced some realities and avoided others.

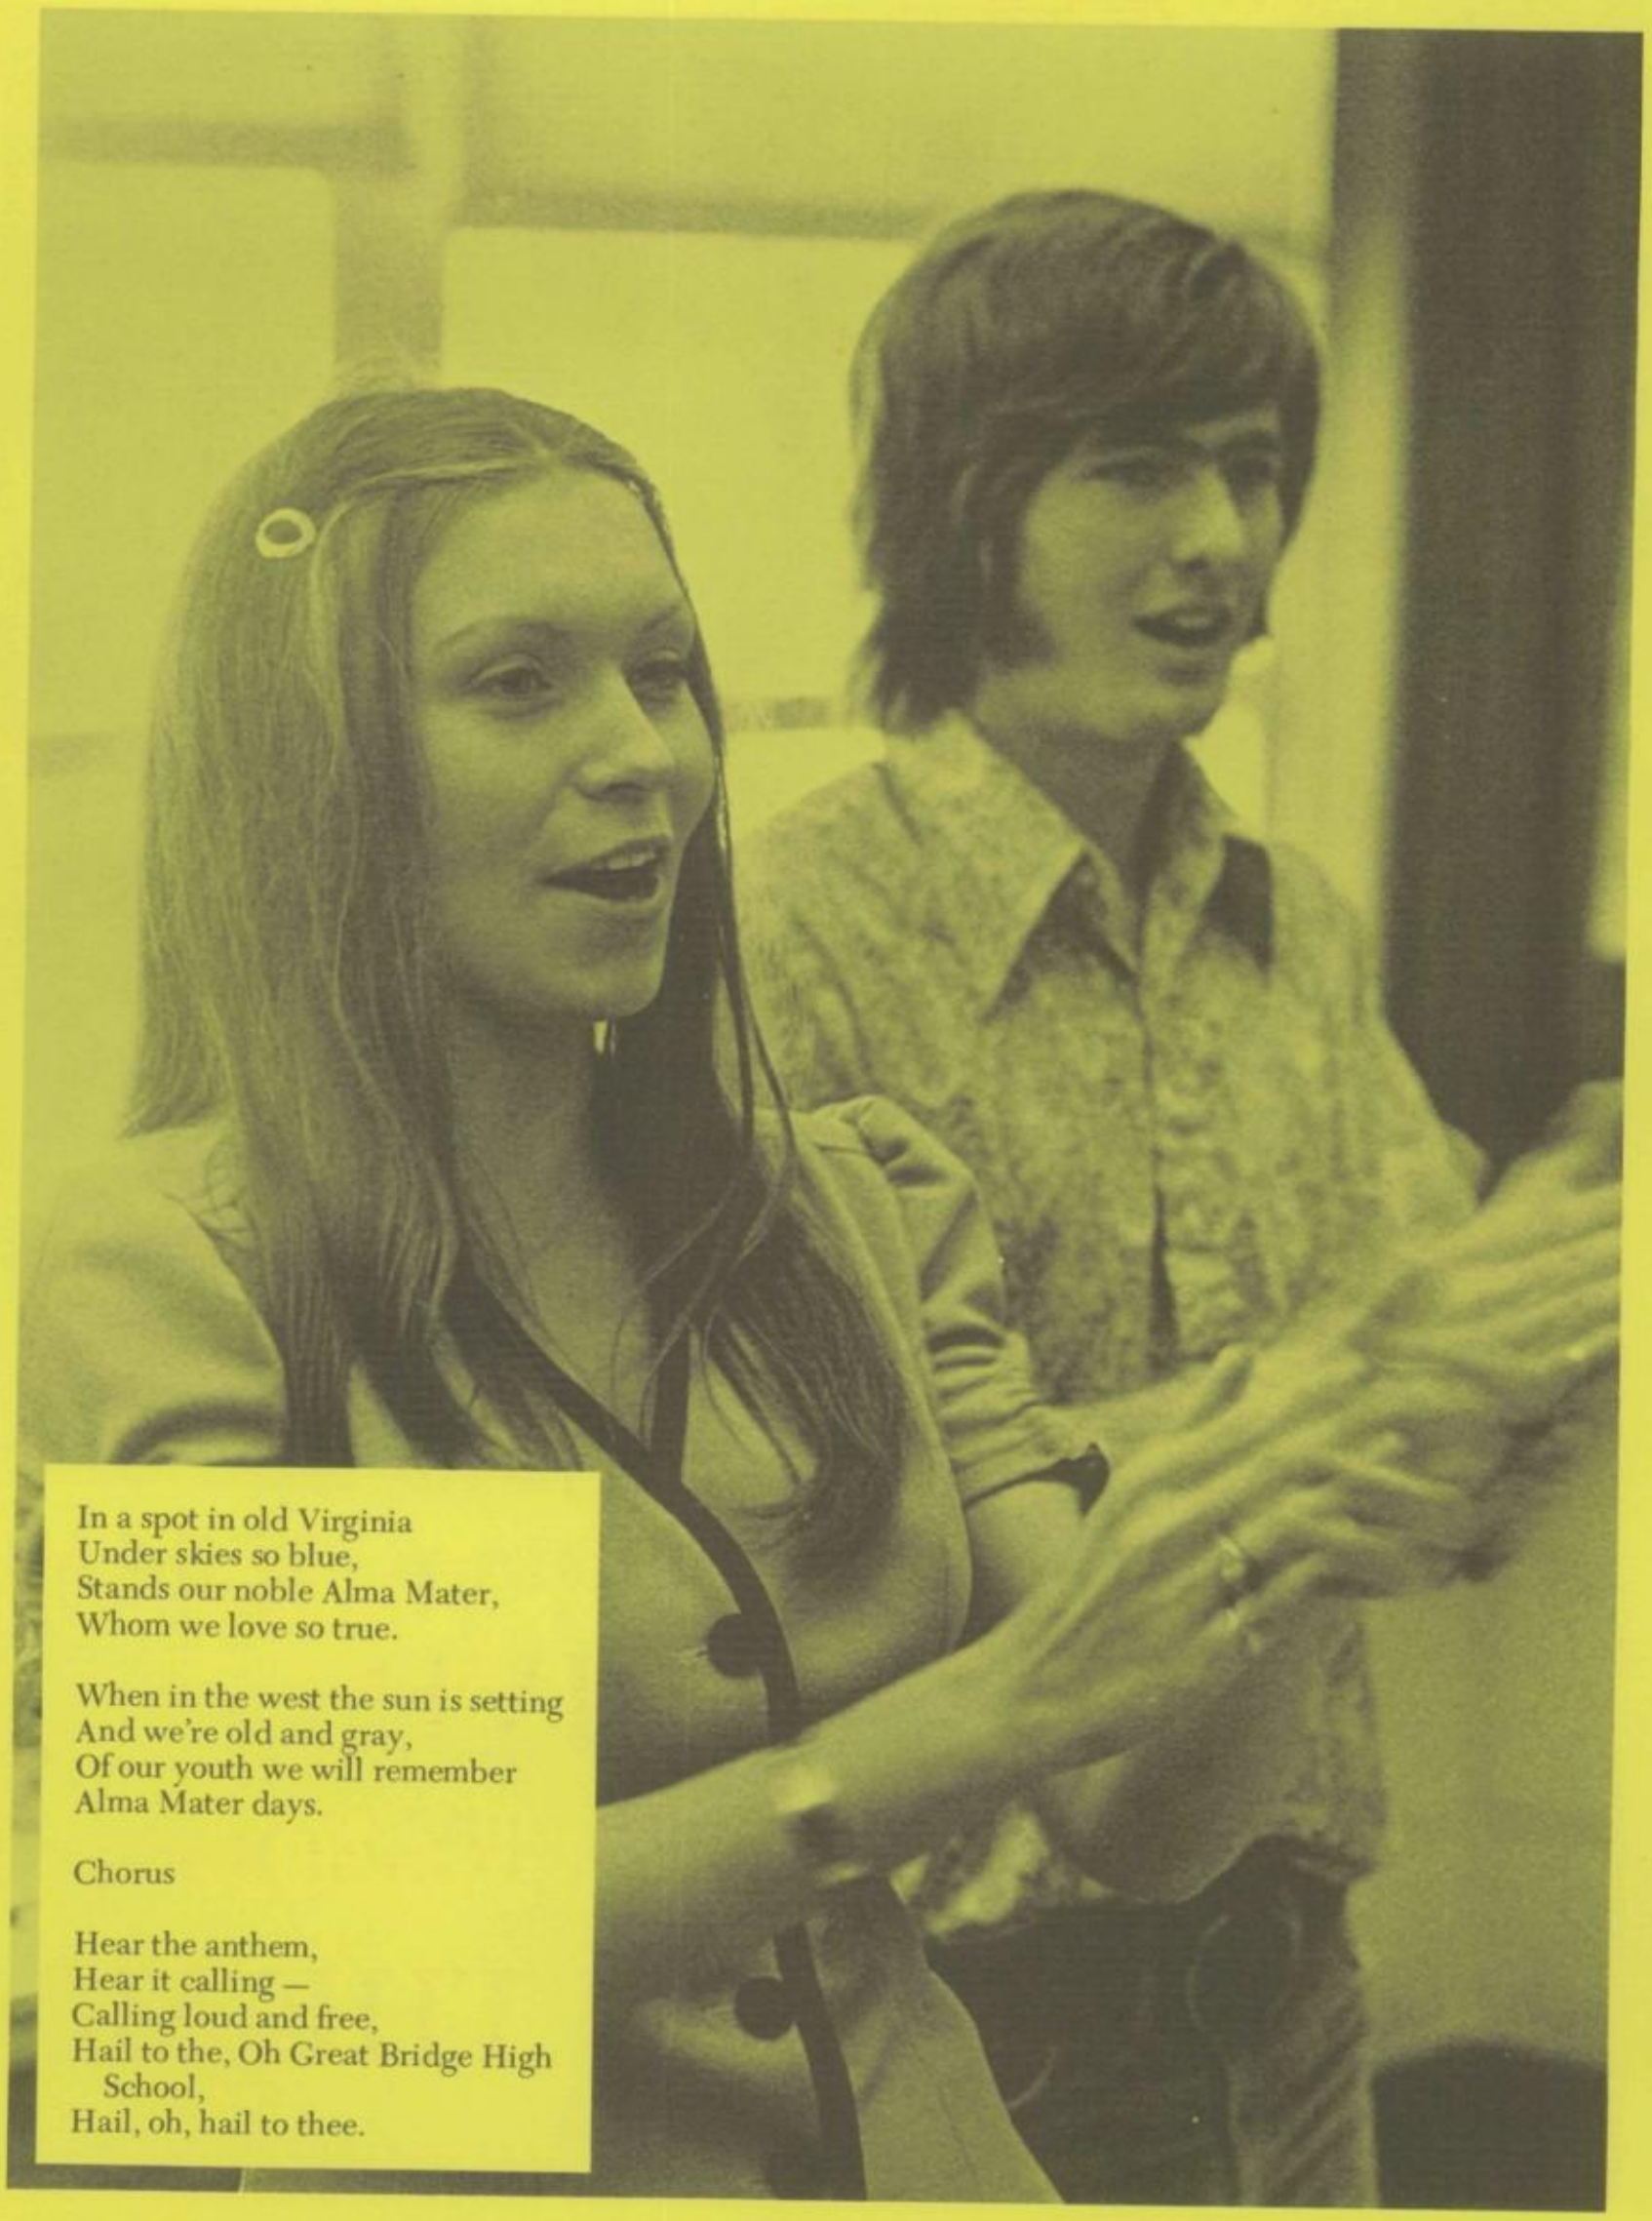
And through it all we sang . . .
We gained maturity of self and mind.



In a spot in old Virginia
Under skies so blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater,
Whom we love so true.

When in the west the sun is setting
And we're old and gray,
Of our youth we will remember
Alma Mater days.

Chorus

Hear the anthem,
Hear it calling —
Calling loud and free,
Hail to the, Oh Great Bridge High School,
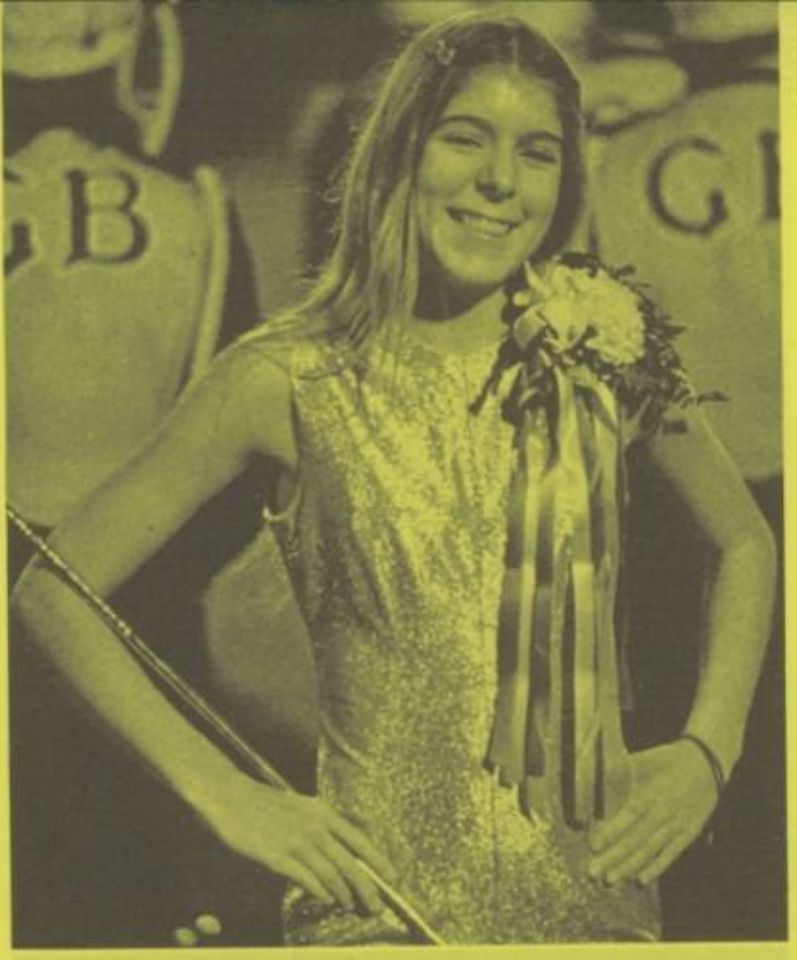
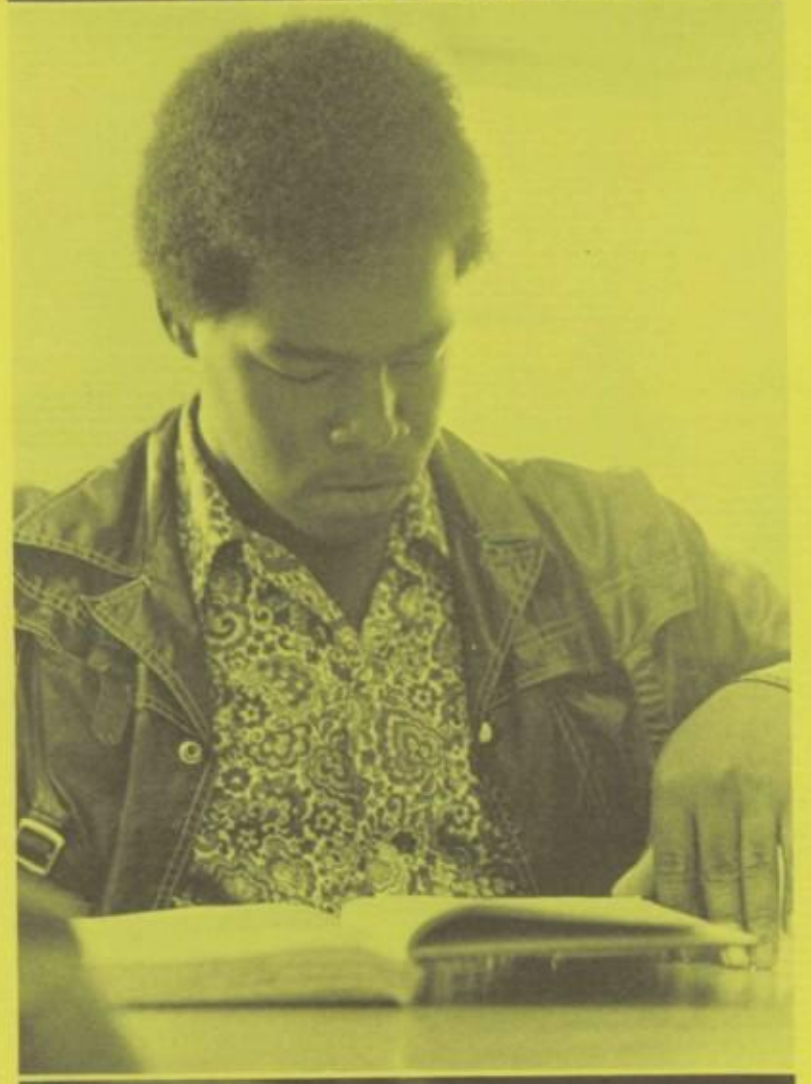
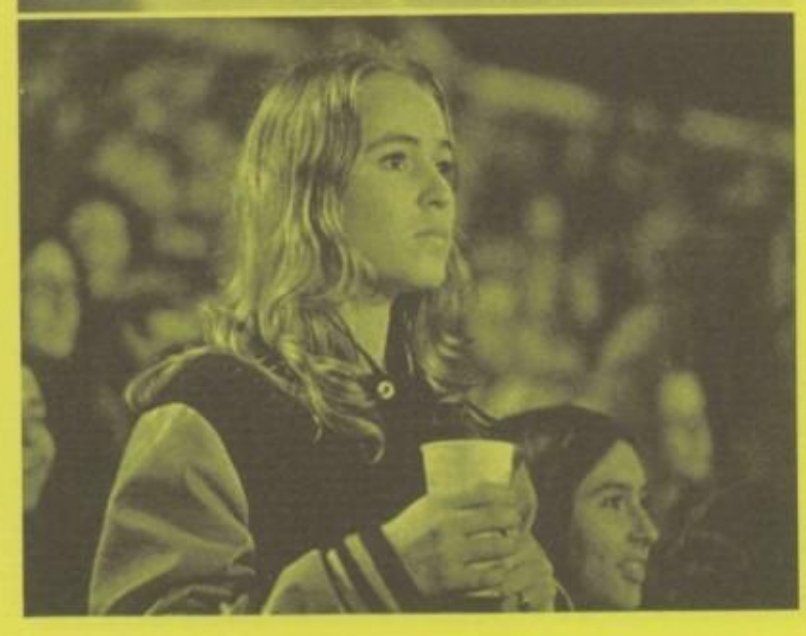
Hail, oh, hail to thee.







It was the first year . . .
the second . . .
or maybe the last . . .
But students will always be

ALIVE

and keep Great Bridge High

ON THE MOVE.

LOOKING BACK . . .

That is when I realize . . .
what Great Bridge has really meant to me.

Walking away and

Rhonda,
To a crazy person that is very sweet & good looking.
Keep crazy always. Have a good summer. catch you this summer, Mark

Rhonda,
To a great girl who I just met. I hope our friendship will increase. I hope to see a lot of you. Have a great summer.
Don't get busted anymore. Best of luck always.
Love
Ed Mark

Rhonda,

Have fun this summer and don't get into any trouble, maybe I'll see ya down the Beach, cause that's where I'll be. See ya

Later Billy

Rhonda,
Have a real sweet + cute Summer. It's been pretty hot here so we've been getting lots of good use
out of the pool.
Stay cool + see ya
at the beach.
Later,
Cathy "Tiger"
Houston

Rhonda,

Will ya know it's hard to even begin to put down in words the things ya'ive done for me. It's not just being a great friend but, one I could always trust. We can't forget all the things we've gotten ourselves in, like being late for classes and sometimes missing them altogether, but just the same we'll make it somehow. Thanks for all the favors, and always your there for me to do and really out of it sometimes. No one could replace you. You know ya really crazy sometimes, but we all are! Have a great summer, I'm sure you'll find a way to do that. Be good and remember me this summer, we'll have a ball together and go some place like the beach (etc.) It's about time we got it together and try to get it. Will you'll get it. Will, somemuch to read and enough, and try said enough. We'll make them laugh and maybe, with a little luck! Will, somemuch to this year, and think up the yearsahead.

Nidia Marquez

Rhonda,

Its really been great knowing you this past year and having you as a friend! I couldn't have met a sweeter girl than you are!

If any time I ever came into Mr. Doziers class and I had a problem or either I had the blues you could always cheer my day up! Don't you ever forget Mr. Doziers class and all of the fun we've had in there! Remember the day that we had to go see old Mr. Jones for getting put on report in Geography class! (Didn't even know what we had done!) I hope that you have a nice summer and that you really enjoy yourself! I hope that I'll see you this summer and in the years to come! Don't ever forget all the different names you called David (chicken man, Peter Pan etc.) Be Good and Take Care! Call me sometime! My number is: 421-3770.

Love Ya!

Rebekah

To A Real good looking girl that I will always like
A lot. Just so you will Remember (*) that's me.
If you ever have a Bad Day, Just think of one of the days In either Mr. Dozier's
Class or Miss Eason's.
Hope I see
you sometime
Love ya.
Mike Smith

P.S. Nope
Be good! ya
this SUMMER.

To a real nice chick that I met in Art
class, it's been fun sorsing out and around and out just sorry I couldn't stay. I'll see you on some to a little Hemp!
Take it easy summer and all your worst!
Kim

To a real good looking girl. Remember all the good times we have now in Dozier's class
throughout the year
Good luck in all your and hope you have
fun. "Chicks Man"

Rhonda!

I don't believe the stuff we've done since I've known you, you are one of my best friends! I think Saturday nite was one of the best times I've ever had. Remember Mike (Jim Dandie) that was so funny. Remember the other time you and Sandy stayed at my house, and Ross and Mike and --- I was afraid we weren't goin to find you and you had the house key. That was close! huh! Dosh ya know we ah to stay at your cottage this summer and have a big party. Well, that's about it (except for thursday, may 31, 1973) Hope ya stay messed up on course if you are I am too!

Love ya,
Sharon Abbott

Ronda,
You're a really cute and sweet person and I've enjoyed being your friend and I look forward to next year. Remember the night we went off with Bonnie!! Stay sweet and keep in touch! Luv ya,
Cindy R.
